NATL. MALLEABLE CLOSING TO PUT 470 OUT OF JOBS

12-Year-Old Is New Citizen

VALERIE WILLIAMS

An exciting event took place for 12-year-old Valerie Louise Williams, 2234 N. Kenwood, at 10:30 Wednesday morning, June 4, at the U. S. Department of Justice, Room 283, when along with 53 others she became a citizen of the United States of America.

A 6-A pupil at School No. 32, she also attends the Arthur Jordan College of Music, studying dancing and piano, and she plays for the Sunday school of Our Savior Lutheran Church.

Coming to this country at the age of 4½, Valerie was a page during the 1955 and 1957 sessions of the Indiana General Assembly. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Williams are understandably proud of their lovely daughter.

Discipline Can Remedy Problems of Teenagers

By A Staff Correspondent

"Vacation daze" will surely increase or contribute to the flare-up of youthful rowdiness and crime throughout the city.

Residents over various areas of the city have expressed such fears very recently.

Now that thousands of pupils from the schools of the city are "on the loose" and in the streets, day and night traffic will be impeded, acts of vandalism committed and the general peace or decorum of the community unduly ruffled, one affable Northside matron observed.

One retired worker said he has had a lot of time to observe and speculate on the ways or manners of present-day youths. His background and experience have been apparently of a readily commendable type.

Rowdiness and vandalism did not enter into the activities of youths of his boyhood days, he commented. He ventured that many parents should be blamed first for the offenses by teenagers against their surroundings.

DAY OR NIGHT some parents are, of a necessity, pursuing the making of a living. But too many others are pre-occupied with every type of activity or interest except their responsibilities to their daughters and sons. The children of such parents are running fast and loose sometimes riding all over the town, this newsman was told.

The speaker admitted that in some homes both parents may be obliged to work. However, he stated that parents and school teachers cooperated in prompting the correct social attitudes in youths

Ex-Cop Jacques Durham Indicted for Pandering

By A Staff Correspondent

A colorful figure in police annals of the city, or betimes along both sides of the thin-line of demarcation between law observance or enforcement and law violation, Jacques Durham, was indicted by the Marion County Grand Jury early this week.

Durham was charged with pandering above his former tavern, the Ebony Lounge, 518 N. West. The charge involved two young women or teenagers, according to police reports.

When a member of the city police department Durham accused some of his superior officers of being connected with a graft syndicate in 1948. About two years later he was discharged from the department.

In some manners a kind of sequel to his various clashes with the police department, early in October of last year Durham was arrested on charges of keeping a dive and house of ill repute.

FOLLOWING THIS ARREST, the very next week he was arrested again on a charge of pandering, involving a young mother, a parolee of the Indiana Girls' School at Clermont.

At the time of the raid and Durham's arrest, he charged that the police made an "illegal entry" to his residence. He claimed that he maintained his residence above the tavern and was entertaining friends, some of whom happened to be white persons.

Persons ensnared in the raid included Tony Combest and his wife Phyllis Combest. According to Combest his wife was 20 or older at the time. He also expressed early convincing opinions about the real age of another young woman, Carolyn Ann Howard, who figured in the related incidents. She is now an inmate of the Girls' School.

Combest at the time made a signed statement which was printed in The Recorder. He charged that the city police department was "persecuting" him and his wife, because of their friendship with Durham. Combest stated that Durham had given him gainful employment, at a time when he could not obtain work any other place in the entire city.

Combest charged that members of the police department tried to intimidate his wife into testifying against Durham. He charged that they coerced her into signing a statement, which she later refused to corroborate on appearing in Municipal Court.

DURHAM CAME UP with affidavits inveighing that he was not guilty as charged by the police following his arrest Oct. 12, 1957. The two or more sworn statements included one by Phyllis J. Combest, witnessed by Tony Combest and sworn to (under notary seal) before Joseph E. Shelton, Oct. 22, 1957.

Harding Case Star Witness Found Slain?

The Recorder received an unconfirmed report Wednesday that Ralph McCombs, the state's star witness in the April, '57 murder trial of Robert Anderson, had been found murdered in a Chicago alley.

Anderson was sentenced to life imprisonment as the alleged trigger-man in the 1955 gangland-style slaying of dope king-pin, Howard Harding.

Liquor Board Member Denies Race Role in License Refusal

A member of the Marion County Liquor Board has denied categorically the intrusion of any "race angle" in the issue on the renewal of a tavern license at 1625 Northwestern Ave.

However the board early this week denied a request for a renewal of the liquor license issued Harold B. Shroyer, 37, 3141 Stuart.

Recently Shroyer told a Recorder newsman that his application for an extension of his two-way permit to include the sale of liquor was turned down. He implied that one of the reasons was that some of his customers were white.

Shroyer recently quoted a member of the liquor board, Milton E. Craig as saying, "When I was in there making my investigation, you were serving white people. We're not getting any integration problem here."

REPORTS BY THE liquor board appear to indicate that Shroyer no longer owns the tavern at Northwestern and 16th Place. And a memorandum from the alcoholic Beverage Commission reported that Shroyer had sold the business to Thomas B. Updike, 2326 N. Arlington.

At one point Shroyer implied that Craig, an attorney and a member of the liquor board, had used his board membership to pressure the collection of a debt Shroyer owed a supply firm last year. The board issued the three-way license to Updike.

Shroyer admitted that Craig withdrew from the matter of the collection on learning that he (Shroyer) was a tavern-keeper. Craig, upon painting an illusive picture of his anxiety about good human (racial) relations, denied Shroyer's implication of his (Craig's) attitudes on interracial relations or "integration."

Stunned City Learns Plant To Close Soon

A stunned Indianapolis learned last week that the National Malleable and Steel Castings Co., employing well over 200 Negroes here, will close its plant next month "for at least a year."

According to Assistant Personnel Manager Paul Patrick, about half of the 470 employees at the plant are Negroes, with some four or five in supervisory capacities. Most of them have worked at National Malleable 20 years or more.

Patrick and Personnel Manager Herman Worrell said they have experienced no resentment on the part of the workers toward the management.

"They just seem to be stunned," Patrick said. The plant, which officials say has been operating in the red for several years, received its closing orders from the Cleveland home office. In addition to Cleveland and Indianapolis, the firm operates a plant in Chicago. The work here will be distributed between those plants.

Except for a few top-level officials, none of the personnel here will be transferred to the other divisions. However, the management has promised to find jobs for its employees in other local industrial firms.

While several interviews have been arranged, no new jobs had been secured Thursday morning. "You know how tough the employment situation is," Worrell said.

Details remain to be worked out, according to Patrick, but company plans call for the paid retirement of all employees 60 years or older. Other employees will be retired according to rank "as long as pension funds last."

However, its doubtful many Negroes will receive this benefit, since most of them are laborers. A MINIMUM OF 10 YEARS in service is necessary for retirement consideration.

While the plant here has been losing money for the past few years, Worrell does not blame employee inefficiency for the plant's Continued on Page 2

New Building To Serve Also As Saints' Home

Christ Temple Apostolic Church will dedicate its new $260,000 annex and Saints Home in special services June 22 at 2:30, Elder Nathaniel Madden announced this week. Bishop Samuel Hancock, of Detroit, presiding bishop of the Pentecostal Churches of the Apostolic Faith, will be the principal speaker.

Bishop Willie Lee, assistant presiding bishop, who led the huge congregation in its successful building program, is pastor at Christ Temple.

The 100-foot square (approximate), two-story addition will include, in addition to the Saints Home for the aged, a dining hall and Sunday school rooms.

The bedroom of the annex, which has a Bedford stone front, have been equipped and comfortably furnished by members and friends of the church. Aside from the bedrooms, the building includes one large living room, a dining room, kitchen and two large baths with two tubs and one shower each.

The second floor includes a private living room, bedroom and bath for the matron. Also on the second floor is a tastefully decorated nursery with a closet having adjustable shelves for small children.

PARTITIONED CLASSROOMS for the Sunday school department are on the first floor, which also contains a large dining area, suitable for other large gatherings. The main floor, east side, has rooms for the junior department, ages 9 to 12. The north side will house the primary department, ages 6 to 9, and the mezzanine will be occupied by the intermediates, ages 12 to 15.

A small area, plus a large kitchen on the west side of the main floor is for general use, such as auxiliary meetings immediately south of this area are beautifully tiled restrooms for men and women, including a spacious lounge for the women.

During annual conventions and council meetings, a 78 by 56-foot space can be used as a dining hall to accommodate hundreds of people at one seating. Otherwise, a portion of the auditorium space, 50 x 50, will be reserved for marriages, receptions and other activities.

Court Upholds Conviction in Westside Killing

The conviction of Loretta Lanton, 39, for the Sept. 30, 1956 slaying of Joshua Jackson was upheld this week by the Indiana Supreme Court.

The slaying took place in the rear of 529 Bright on the 1956 date. The Lanton woman was convicted in Hancock Circuit Court.

Jackson died of a slashed throat. The defendant in the case claimed he threatened her with a gun. The gun was never found.

She was sentenced to serve a 2-21 year term in Indiana's Women's Prison.

Million-Dollar Center Set For Opening on Westside

By WM. A. CHAMBERS

The new million-dollar shopping center between W. 10th and 11th and south of Attucks high school will be ready for occupancy on or before November 1.

This is according to a statement by a representative of Albert L. Frankel Co., leasing agency for the new project.

A few of the better-known tenants will include the Hook Drug Co., Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. and Schiff Shoes, a chain-store organization of the Midwest.

A super-market of the A. and P. organization will occupy 13,500 square feet of floor space. The Hook Drug Co. will occupy 7,500 square feet of floor space, and Schiff Shoes will occupy 3,000 square feet.

Ownership of the shopping center is vested in the Westside Development Corporation. Prospective tenants are advised that several select sites or storerooms are still available within the project which will be of the most modern constructional design and contractual appointments and which holds great promise as an outlet for merchandise and location of service business operations.

NAACP to Elect National Delegates
Delegates to the NAACP national convention will be elected at a meeting of the local branch to be held Friday, June 20, at 7:30 p. m. at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA.

The Indianapolis branch is entitled to five delegates to the national convocation, to be held July 7-13 in Cleveland.

SMC Board Members

Mrs. Frederick Parker and Charles E. Harry Sr. are members of the board of the Indianapolis Service Men's Center, according to the organization's recent release. The center, 111 N. Capitol, is an agency of the United Fund.

State Physicians, Wives To Meet at Richmond

Richmond will host the ninth annual session of the Hoosier State Medical Association and its ladies' auxiliary, convening Wednesday and Thursday, June 18 and 19, at the YWCA, 102 N. Ninth. Medical sessions will be held at Reid Memorial hospital, the site of Wednesday morning's registration.

Speakers scheduled for the opening session include Drs. Glen Ward Lee, A. L. Bridges and G. Tanner Brooks.

Four sessions are set for Wednesday afternoon featuring as guest lecturers Dr. R. A. Weitemier, Richmond; Dr. Harold G. Russell, St. Louis; Dr. Russell L. Malcolm, Richmond, and Dr. Paul E. Dingle, Richmond.

Chairmen for these sessions are Drs. E. P. Thomas, Indianapolis; D. A. Betha, Hammond; J. Roger Smith, Richmond, and Frank P. Lloyd, Indianapolis.

Also included in Wednesday's program are a tour of Richmond State hospital, President A. L. Bridges' annual address and committee appointments.

THE THURSDAY LECTURE schedule includes talks by Drs. Tom S. Shields, William C. Vance and John F. Ling, all of Richmond, and L. B. Johnson, Gary, with Drs. Ambrose Price, Marion; William B. Smith, Indianapolis; J. Sylvester Smith, Muncie, and E. H. Hudson, Anderson, as chairmen.

Dr. Walter H. Maddux, of Indianapolis, will conduct a question period. Lecturers for Thursday afternoon are Drs. Glen A. Ramsdell, Richmond; Harold G. Russell, St. Louis, and Francis B. Warrick, Richmond.

C. R. RICHARDSON IS GOP PLATFORM ADVISOR

Cornelius Richardson is a member of the Platform Advisory Committee for the 1958 Republican State Convention, which has been holding hearings since Tuesday afternoon in the Louis XIV and Empire rooms of the Claypool hotel.

Richardson, a prominent Richmond attorney, is a 50-year Mason and formerly was grand master of Indiana Prince Hall Masons.

Victim of Rape Attack

A Westside party-goer was the victim of a rape attack early Friday morning as the fellow who offered to take her home from the party took her out and assaulted her first.

The woman called police and reported she had been at a party at 740 Hadley, where a man she did not know offered to take her home.

She said instead of taking her directly home, the man drove out to the Riverside de Park area where he dragged her from the car and raped her. He then took her home.

Police went to the Hadley street address and were told by Mrs. Lily Ford, 41, of that address that her brother, Jimmy Webster, 25, 232 Blake (rear) had taken the woman home.

The officers went to a Blake street address where Webster was positively identified by the woman as the man who had raped her.

She was taken to General hospital for examination, and Webster was arrested on pre-rape charges.

RECORD CATCH? With the help of her fishing partner Mrs. Anna Lou Ragland (Center), 1046 N. Traub, holds her 5½-pound large-mouth bass for the world to see. Looking on with mixed emotions of pride and envy are her husband, Dallas, and friend, Mrs. Florida Mae Norris, 335 N. California, with her on the fishing trip at Geist reservoir, Monday. Mrs. Ragland, who thinks her catch may approach a season record—"At least I never came anywhere near that before"—said she landed the 15-inch without a dip net. It wasn't a one-fish day, however. The fishing party also brought home 25 blue-gills and one catfish. ((Recorder photo by Bill Rasberry.)

closing. "We've got a wonderful bunch of workers here," he enthused. "And they seem to like it here."

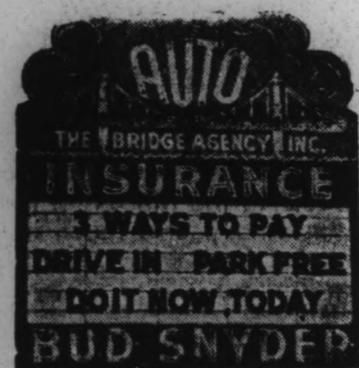

"Many of them said they were willing to take a pay cut just to keep the plant open. One of the main factors," Worrell said, "is that there is a tremendous amount of competition in the malleable industry. The recession was just the last straw. Malleable produces automotive castings for Chrysler Corporation."

Lifetime Missionary Formerly Worked At Flanner House

A former Flanner House worker, Miss Betty E. Erlewine, was among the 26 persons commissioned lifetime missionaries of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) June 10.

A trained social worker, Miss Erlewine will be assigned by the United Christian Missionary Society, the commissioning agency, to its mission field in the Belgian Congo.

Miss Erlewine was ordained a minister at the Overland (Mo.) Christian Church, in September, 1953.

Charles Martin Is Head of Hod Carriers

In their first election since the international union took over operation of Local 120 of the Hod Carriers' Building and Common Laborers' union last September, Charles Martin was named local president last week.

The international suspended officers here following a list of charges including rigged elections.

Others elected last week include Sam Collier, vice-president; Robert Everett, recording and corresponding secretary; Raymond Hedrick, financial secretary; Zack Duval, treasurer; James "Skipper" Conner, business agent, and William H. Livingston, sergeant-at-arms.

New trustees are Earl Thomas, Andrew Linton and Eddie Waller. Preston Brown and Sam Monger are members of the executive board.

Charles Martin, George Hensley, Bennie Baggby, Albert Reeves and Lawson Simmons were chosen delegates to the Central Labor Union; Zack Duval, Charles Martin, James Conner, Ray Hedrick and James Montgomery, district council delegates, and Earl Thomas was named building trades delegate.

The election committee was composed of B. J. Rabb, Charles Smitha and Calvin Maul.

A BIT OF HAWAII: A wide variety of entertainment kept everybody happy at the "Monte Carlo" family party held at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA last Saturday. Offering a bit of Hawaii are these four dancers, one of whom unfortunately was dancing a little faster than Recorder Photographer Jim Burres thought she was. They are the Misses Sandra Winfield, Deborah Kirk, Sandra Long and Mildred Wright.

National Shriners Deposit $127,000 Through City Man

ALVIN RENO

A whopping $127,000 was deposited in Indiana National Bank this week by the Imperial Council Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

The money, representing the Shrine Cancer and Tuberculosis Research Foundation and other funds, was deposited to facilitate service to the research foundation of the general fund and other Shrine projects by bringing the assets closer to the home of the treasurer, Alvin Reno, 941 W. 28th.

In addition to the deposit made in the local bank, Reno, as imperial treasurer, has within his custody an additional $100,000, which is on deposit in several Negro-owned banks throughout the country.

According to Reno, the organization's overall assets total more than $3 million.

Reno, founder of Alvin Reno and Associates Commercial Painters and Cabinet Makers firm, has been imperial treasurer since assuming that office upon the death of the former treasurer, Claude Watkins, of Marion, in 1957.

HE PREVIOUSLY SERVED as potentate of Persian Temple No. 46, A.E.A.O.N.M.S., worshipful master of Southern Cross Lodge No. 39 F. and A. M., district deputy grand master of Prince Hall Grand Lodge, and is currently treasurer of Constantine Consistory No. 25 A.A.S.R.

He is a 33rd Degree Mason.

When he made this week's deposit, he was accompanied by his personal attorney, Patrick E. Chavis Jr., local fraternal, civic and political leader.

Atty. Chavis is junior warden of Fidelity Lodge No. 55 F. and A. M., second lieutenant commander of Constantine Consistory No. 25 A.A.S.R., legal advisor of Persian Temple No. 46 A.E.A.O.N.M.S. and is a member of numerous other civic, fraternal, religious and community organizations. He lives at 3821 Boulevard.

Persian Temple No. 46 of Indianapolis, founded in 1900, is a constituent temple of the A.E.A.O.N.M.S. Matthew J. Craig is illustrious potentate of Persian Temple. Lieut. Osa G. Woodall is chief rabban. Van Wert Mullin is assistant rabban. Rev. Erwin E. Dinkins Jr., is recorder and Rev. William Howard Weaver is high priest and prophet.

Imperial sessions of the shrine will be held Aug. 17-22 in Chicago's Conrad Hilton hotel.

Negro Shrinedom had its origin in Chicago when, in 1893, the Noble of the Mystic Shrine degree was conferred upon a group of Masonic leaders by Arabic visitors to the Chicago World Fair.

Churchmen To Hear African Archbishop

The Anglican archbishop of Capetown, the Most Rev. Joost de Blank, will visit Indianapolis next week. Archbishop de Blank will be guest of honor at a luncheon sponsored by the Bishop's Men of the Episcopal Diocese of Indianapolis at the Columbia Club, Monday at 12:30.

He will give an address at Christ Church Episcopal Cathedral, on Monument Circle, at 8 Monday evening. This service is open to the public.

The 50-year-old archbishop is a graduate of Queen's College and Cambridge University. He was ordained priest of the Church of England in 1931 and prior to World War II served parishes in London.

In 1940, he became chaplain to the British forces and served in the Western Desert, Syria and on the continent of Europe, as well as in England. He was seriously wounded in 1944 and, after long hospitalization, served as commandant of the Royal Army Chaplain's Depot until his release from service in 1946.

Consecrated Bishop of St. John's in 1952, he served three until his election to the archbishopric of Capetown and as Metropolitan of the province of the Anglican Church in South Africa in April, 1957.

charge of treason.

The charges arose out of their opposition to the government's segregation policies.

In his address at the sale, the archbishop said in part, "It may be said that by associating myself with this fund I am stepping down into the political arena... but this is not true. It is not a case of a Churchman stepping down, but of politicians stepping up to the theological arena."

"I am here," Archbishop de Blank continued, "because as a Christian, I believe that justice should be enhanced. From the humanitarian aspect, these people are entitled to help before their innocence or otherwise is proved."

Always deeply concerned with social justice, Archbishop de Blank crossed swords early in his South African career with the government authorities on the question of apartheid, the policy of the South African government requiring rigid segregation of races and leading to inhuman treatment for the native population.

Shortly after the archbishop's arrival in Capetown, it was suggested by a member of Parliament that he be deported. The suggestion came as a result of remarks made by the archbishop at a sale of paintings held in Capetown to aid the South African Defense Fund for 95 men and women, of all races committed for trial on

CLEVELAND EMANUEL

Funeral services for Cleveland Emanuel, 31, 2430 Sheldon, who died June 9 in Veterans Administration hospital on West 10th, were held at Fayetteville, Tenn. King and King Funeral Home handled the arrangements.

A native of Bennettsville, S. C., he had lived here two years and was employed at King's. Mr. Emanuel was a veteran of World War II.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Bertha Emanuel; his father, Henry Emanuel, a brother and a sister.

LUDIE WATTS

Services for Ludie A. Watts, 82, 645 W. 28th were held June 12 in First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, of which he was a member. Burial was in New Crown. Mr. Watts died June 12 in a local nursing home.

Born at Elsberry, Mo., he had lived here since 1901 and had worked as a house man. He was a member of the male chorus of his church.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Fannie Watts; a daughter, Mrs. Edith McElroy; three sons, James Watts, Indianapolis, and Raymond and Vernon Watts of Chicago, and two grandchildren.

Teenagers

In other days, he challenged. Casually he ventured that youth "must be served" — but the "Western World is going no place fast" in the ways youths are being served.

In contemplating "youths on the loose" he discussed "street clubs." He said that these groups exist in almost every city or town over the land. And even though informally, they do exist as instrumentalities through which teenagers develop and give vent to teachings on traditions or customs, on intolerance, racial feelings and repercussions of discrimination against their neighbors of different ethnic or national origins and creeds.

He proposed that one of the nation's major problems involves the necessity for correcting community conditions as these involve teenage groups that congregate on street corners, in some cellars or basements, or in various business places nearby to where the crowds pass by.

total specter of "anti-social heroes of youths." Such characters as are dramatized by various media communicating ideas, comic books, radio, TV, motion pictures, etc.

He concluded some compelling action must be initiated to divert the interests and activities of teenagers into constructive channels and such programs or plans must alleviate tensions housing health and recreation problems.

A healthy community from the social or civic and human relations point should prove some manners of a solution, we were finally informed.

MARVIN WHITE

Funeral services for Marvin Dewey White, 56, who died May 31 in his home, 2842 N. Illinois, were held June 4 in Stuart Mortuary. Burial was in Floral Park.

Mr. White was a life resident of Indianapolis.

Survivors are two brothers, John and Verli White, and three sisters, Mesdames Myrtle Patterson and Lucille Williams and Miss Lillian White.

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. MCGUIRE

As a notary public, I have filed many applications for various persons, and I am beginning to see what this "recession" is all about. A man between the ages of 40 and 60 finds it hard to get a job, and a woman is "too old" when she's over 35. Yet it has been stated that the older workers are no worse than the younger ones, are often more reliable and productive and are no special problems.

But many personnel directors say it's not their own beliefs which keep these people out of jobs—the practice is imposed by two out of every three companies.

May I say to those past the age limit, "Keep pounding." We are in a country in which, by 1975 people over 45 will constitute half the adult population, and where will the money come from to support those who cannot get work?

Though my voice may be as one sounding in the wilderness, let's make the best of the jobs we now have under the so-called age limit. Many come into my office having held several jobs in one year.

I don't think many of our parents changed jobs so often. I wish I was made of the material my dear old mother was!

Sunday will be Men's Day at New Bethel Baptist Church, and the men will really show their colors. They are inviting all men of the city to be with them in this wonderful effort. Willie Jackson says they will reach their goal. Women are not barred.

The men are doing a fine job under the leadership of Dr. F. Benjamin Davis as pastor.

Last Sunday the Starlight Band of the church held its annual Children's Day, with Mrs. Leona Whitfield as superintendent. Among those represented was the Starlight Band of Eastern Star Baptist Church.

Mrs. Whitfield has served as superintendent of the children for many years.

Speaking of Men's Day, the men of St. John AME Church will have a joint service with the men of New Hope Baptist Church at the former church Sunday afternoon.

YWCA Announces 'Twilight Hour'

The Phyllis Wheatley Branch YWCA will present Mrs. Lucy Todd Shelton, poetess, to highlight its "Twilight Hour" program Sunday evening at 5:30, with Miss Betty M. Hayes as accompanist.

Mrs. Maude Dancy Duvall is chairman of the monthly "Twilight Hour," and Mrs. Fanny Young is co-chairman. The program will be open to the public.

June 29. Theme will be "Christians United," and Rev. S. R. Wright, pastor of Scott's Methodist Church, will be principal speaker.

Host pastors are Rev. J. C. Butler of New Hope and Rev. H. A. Perry of St. John. Working on the committee are Arthur Dodson, George Campbell, S. T. White and Ludie May.

Mark your calendar now.

Mrs. Arlanda Moss, 2403 Guilford, sister of Mrs. Viola Mills and mother of Henry Moss, 2400 Sheldon, is improving after several months of illness.

QUANTITAS met with Mrs. Anna Huddleston, 617 W. Vermont. Prizes were won by Mesdames Ruby West, president, Anita Riding and Mary Suggs. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, 530 W. 26th.

HERE'S A HINT: A hint of what patrons may expect when Billie Smith Douglass presents her 14th annual Dance Workshop recital Friday night, June 20, at the Attucks auditorium is provided by these pictures. With Instructor Wilma Burris are Gale Brown, Beverly Jenkins and Patricia Martin, while young ballerinas at the barre are Ann Randle, Cassandra Smith, Linda Ray, Patricia Pinckney and Donna Pinckney.

14th Annual Dance Workshop To Feature "Moon" Ballet

Billie Smith Douglass will present her 14th annual Dance Workshop June 20, 8:15, in the Attucks auditorium. The feature presentation, a ballet, will be "Destination Moon." Frank Vaughn will be seen as the Space Man, while the prominent instructor herself will dance the Moon Beast. Patricia Weathers will be Luna.

Dancing the roles of Moon Maids will be Wilma Burris, Valerie Bush, Diane Brown, Maxine Anderson, Lynn Ridley and Patricia Sampson.

Maidlets will be Gale Brown, Doris Campbell, Janet Hizer, Beverly Jenkins, Jacqueline Kennedy, Patricia Martin, Aurelia Pringle, Ann Randall, Linda Ray and Tanaya Wallace.

In addition to the ballet, other highlights which promise to make a very entertaining show include "Le Secret," featuring the "wee ones," Bonita Butler, Brenda Granger, Cecelia Howell, Melody Jackson, Pamela Jordan, Jacqueline Kennedy, Marilyn O'Bannon and Sondra Ross.

Linda Ray will star in "Me and My Shadow," with Doris Campbell.

Beverly Jenkins, Patricia Pinckney and Ann Randall, as her shadow.

Carmen Slatter will dance the Little Figurine, Aurelia Pringle will present the Blue Danube Waltz and Diane Brown will do Tap-a-Ling-Ling.

Frank Vaughn will join Wilma Burris, Valerie Bush and Diane Brown in Diablo, an unusual Bancock Cock Fight routine.

Other participants will be Donna Pinckney, Pamela Porter, Carla Reed, Susan Smith, Judy Vaden, Martha Nelson, Norma Slatter and Linda Bagg.

Daughter Visits Herman S. Browns

Mr. and Mrs. Herman S. Brown Sr. have as house guest their daughter, Mrs. Frances Walston of Detroit, a well-known poetess who will have a book of poems "Whispering" published soon.

For four years Mrs. Walston has served as chief officer clerk in charge of admitting officer personnel at Parkside Hospital in her city. Her poems appear each week in a Detroit paper, and she reads poetry over Detroit's Radio Station WDLB each Sunday. A member of Allen Chapel CME Church, she is widely in demand as a speaker at various churches.

While in the city she was dinner guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brown Jr.

Mrs. Anna Laura Hamilton and little granddaughter, Patricia Ann, of Marion, Ky., are visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Berry, 3345 Boulevard, En route home she will visit a son in Ohio.

Fashionette Graduates Hear City Club Federation Leader

Members of the 1958 graduating class of the Fashionette School of Beauty Culture and Barbering heard an inspirational talk by Mrs. Clara Phillips, president of the City Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, at their graduation banquet last Saturday night at Flanner House. She was introduced by Mrs. Essie G. Ray, faculty member.

Also sharing the spotlight was the crowning of Mrs. Vera N. Hall as "Queen for a Day" for selling the most tickets in connection with a popularity contest in which a 20-pound ham was won by John Williams.

Clarence Wilson was crowned "King for a Day," and Miss JoAnn Guy of Lexington, Ky., was runner-up in the "queen" contest. The coronation was performed by Richard C. Henderson, managing editor of The Recorder. The winners received beautiful gifts.

Another staff member, Mrs. Elsie B. Wilson, was in charge of the guest table, while the founder and president of the school, Mrs. Priscilla Dean Lewis, delighted the group as a relaxed master of ceremonies.

Beauty school directors invited as special guests included Mesdames Laura Hughes, Sarah Barlow, Mae Simmons and Lucille Maggard of the school's Poise, Posture and Good Grooming club, while the "special" list also included Rev. and Mrs. C. Henry Bell, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. D. Hector, Dr. J. Leon Simms and John J. James.

Other staff members sharing the official table were Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Lewis, Mesdames Adele O. Kellybrew, Victoria Pitts, Dorothy Smith, Hattie Burkett and Mary P. McGuire Connell and Rev. Felix L. Barnes.

Frank Lloyd, school photographer, took movies assisted by Mrs. Ruth Ross and Alfred Hall.

In her remarks Mrs. Lewis praised Mrs. Elizabeth Gardner for the hand-painted favors and unique sign over the official table. Mesdames Ross and Hall were thanked for the beautiful flowers.

READY FOR ME-DE-PHAR LUNCHEON: Members of the Me-De-Phar Guild and their guests paused for Recorder Photographer Bill Raspberry in the foyer of Flanner House on Wednesday afternoon of last week before enjoying the luncheon which highlighted their activities while their "men folks," members of the Indiana State Dental, Medical and Pharmaceutical Association held their annual convention at the Indiana University Medical Center. Seated in front are Mrs. Spurling Clark, president; Miss Ollie Middleton and Mesdames Ralph Nelson of Washington, D. C., Richard Ferguson of Richmond, H. H. Murray and C. A. Lucas Jr. On the second row are Mesdames C. B. Cox, treasurer; S. D. Meriwether, M. E. Allison, Frank Chowning, corresponding secretary; J. Leon Simms, Ralph Hanley and F. M. King. On the last row (they're all there, but some are hidden by the charming hats) are Mesdames E. P. Thomas, Louis Maxey, Hardy Stoner, H. L. Hummons, F. B. Ransom, Walter Maddux, recording secretary, E. D. Moten and R. B. McArthur.

THESE ARE GRANDMOTHERS: It's hard to believe, but all these women are grandmothers, and they are all members of the Les Grandmothers club, busily making plans for a "Tom Thumb Wedding" to be held Sunday afternoon, June 29, at 3:30 at the FAC Home. The club is the fulfillment of a long-time dream of Mrs. Mae Grubbs Johnson to organize such a group. Formed July 28, 1957, the club is concerned with civic work, chiefly by assisting underprivileged children. The wedding project is to raise funds for sending two or three children to camp this summer.

Chatting with the FAC

By ELSA JACKSON

Monday night's FAC meeting was "My Friend" blue ribbon night, and a large attendance was registered. Members introduced their guests, then pinned on them blue ribbons inscribed "My Friend." Each person who brought friends received a button, and Mrs. Emma McKnight, who brought the largest number of friends, received the top award, a long blue ribbon for "My Friend Night."

The World Players then presented a very entertaining and well-presented one-act comedy, "For All Eternity." Mrs. Alma Dallas, director, has been invited to bring the group back with another play at some future date.

Starling W. James, president, is asking that customers of the Standard grocery at 22nd and Illinois write letters to M. Lillard, manager, expressing their appreciation for the hiring of Negroes in the store.

Several committees made interesting reports: the board of directors on redecorating the club home and on various recommendations; Mrs. Ethel Ryan on the success of the activities committee's "Mother's Day Tea and Fashion Parade," and Mrs. Lillian Goens on her committee's vanilla extract and black pepper project.

Mrs. Goens also invited everyone to the civic and legislative committee's annual garden social to be held in her beautiful yard Saturday, June 21. Food will be served from 11 to 9:30. In the event of bad weather, the social will be held indoors. Her home is at 4226 Rookwood.

Mrs. Emma McKnight told of plans for the 32 residents of the Farm Colony. The health and welfare committee gives the party annually. Ice cream and cake will be served, and a program will be rendered.

Mrs. McKnight will appreciate your help, donations for refreshments and donations of cars to take people out.

All persons interested in going will report at the club home by noon on Saturday, June 28.

Little Sharon Denise Taylor, infant daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Taylor, was winner of a baby contest at St. Stephen's Baptist Church recently. The baby was supported by the health and welfare committee, of which her mother, Mrs. Mary Taylor, is a member.

WED IN MAY RITES: Mr. and Mrs. David Kemp Jr. became man and wife in a beautiful double-ring ceremony May 17 in Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church. Before the wedding Mrs. Kemp was Miss Carrie Genevieve Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith, 2615 Boulevard.

Kemp-Smith Vows Repeated in Double-Ring Church Ceremony

A double-ring nuptial mass united in marriage Miss Carrie Genevieve Smith and David Kemp Jr., the ceremony being performed May 17 at Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church with Rev. Joseph Grothaus officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith, 2615 Boulevard, while Mrs. Bertha Kemp of Louisville is the groom's mother.

White gladiolus and palms decorated the altar of the church. Preceding the ceremony a program of bridal music was furnished by John Alexander and Mrs. Maxine Ferguson. The girls' choir of the Holy Angels parochial schools supplied music for the nuptial mass.

Mrs. Reginald Patton, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor, wearing a white venise-type lace sheath dress with a rayon taffeta overskirt of light blue. She carried yellow roses.

Another sister, Miss Bernadette Smith, was maid-of-honor. Her dress was fashioned similarly to that of the matron-of-honor, but in pink. She carried pink roses.

Similar dresses were worn by the other attendants, Mrs. William Taylor Jr. in orchid, Mrs. Alfred Fennell Jr. in mint green and Miss Betty Roache in yellow.

The bride, entering on the arm of her father, was crowned in silk organza with Alencon lace appliques. The gown featured a bateau neckline bordered with lace appliques. Her two-tiered silk illusion veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and sequins.

In addition to her bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid, she carried a sterling silver and crystal rosary.

Her niece, little Miss Mary Catherine Smith, wore a blue nylon dress with pink corsage in her role as flower girl.

Serving as ring-bearer was her nephew, William Crayton Smith.

Assisting as hostesses were Mesdames Donald Glenn and William Crayton Smith Sr. and the Misses Doris Anne Smith, Nona and JoAnn Hunter and Carolyn Parker.

Out-of-town guests were the groom's mother and his sister, Mrs. Alene Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Gilliam and Miss Saralene Lennear, all of Louisville; the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Jones, Decatur, and Miss Betty Doty, Chicago.

After a wedding trip to Three Rivers, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Kemp are at home at 4221 Rookwood.

A graduate of the Holy Cross Central School of Nursing, the bride is employed in the Cold Spring Road Division of the Veterans Administration Hospital.

The groom is an Armed Services veteran with four years' service. Benjamin Banneker, Negro astronomer, helped survey and plan the City of Washington, D. C. in 1793.

NCNW Women Hear Report on "Mobilization"

Reports on the current "Mobilization Campaign" highlighted the enthusiastic meeting of the Indianapolis chapter of the National Council of Negro Women held last Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. E. Harper.

Workers said they were inspired to reach the three-quarter mark by the next meeting to be held Sunday with Mrs. Elwood Matthews, 1336 W. 34th.

Newly elected officers, in addition to Mrs. Matthews as president, are Mesdames Virgie Davis, first J. Halley Dunn, second vice-president; Merritt Pace recording secretary; Ruth R. Trice, assistant; J. E. Harper, corresponding secretary; Robert Fanning, financial secretary; R. H. Peoples, treasurer; O. A. Johnson, historian, and Lena Harris, parliamentarian.

The Indianapolis Council was represented at the regional conference held in St. Louis by Mesdames Matthews, Davis, Jean Stephany and Iva Dee Davis, who was re-elected treasurer of the region.

VISIT WOMEN'S CLUB: When Mrs. John A. Patton entertained the Woman's Improvement club Monday at her home, 2450 Boulevard, three visitors enjoyed the interesting meeting and delicious refreshments. Pausing outside the home to admire the foundation planting while Mrs. Patton (second from left in the background) adjusts a shrubbery branch, are Mrs. Ralph Nelson of Washington, D.C., guest of Mrs.

F. B. Ransom; Mrs. Emmett L. Scruggs, Chattanooga, visiting Mrs. Patton while here for the graduation of her son, Robert Mann, from the Indiana University Law School; Miss Olnrewaju Olufowuokan, here from Nigeria to attend classes at the Walker Beauty School, and Mrs. Merle Craig, president of the club. Mt. Zion Club Sets Annual Tea

The Life Line club of Mt. Zion Baptist Church will sponsor its annual fashion tea, the "The de Facon," Sunday afternoon, June 22, from 4 to 7 in Dorcas Hall of the church, which will be transformed into a Paris setting for the affair.

Many of the best-dressed women in Indianapolis will be featured in summer-time fashions for 1958. A musical program has been arranged, and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Clo Woolridge is chairman, while Rev. R. T. Andrews is pastor.

Artistic Club Honors Member

Members of the Artistic club feted a fellow-member, Mrs. Lena Louise Perkins, last week, presenting her with two beautiful mirrors for her dresserette upon the opening of the Chic Femme Beauty Salon.

Members are Mesdames Jamesetta Stepp, Leona Stevenson, Lula Higgins, Georgia McElroy, Irene Stepp and Fern Williams.

Mt. Paran Choir Sets Anniversary

The Mt. Paran Baptist Church young adult choir will celebrate its first anniversary Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the church, with Rev. H. L. Burton of Phillips Temple CME Church as guest speaker.

The choir is directed by David M. Walker.

Mrs. Evelyn Pulliam left Tuesday for Los Angeles to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pulliam, and another son, Charles Pulliam, formerly of this city.

She will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Willard Miller in San Diego, Calif., before returning home.

CHURCH EVENTS ... of the City
By WILLA THOMAS

People around the nation will give honor to their fathers Sunday as we observe Father's Day. On that day, fathers will be guests at special dinners given by their children, and many will receive special gifts of appreciation. Still more honors will be given those fathers who attend church Sunday with their children.
As Father's Day approaches, I should like to pay tribute to a worthy young man who is a kind, understanding father. Dr. Clinton Marsh has been a faithful pastor at Witherspoon United Presbyterian Church for a number of years.
Many times I have seen him driving along with a car full of children, taking them to church. He is a mild-mannered man by nature and doesn't care for praise for the service he is rendering his church and community by helping the children get started in the right paths.
He recently added an educational wing to the church building. He is a member of the Weewday School of Religion board and a member of the Church Federation. Other organizations to which he belongs and functions which he performs are far too numerous to mention here.
But it is my prayer that he continue to set a noble example by serving God and his community, both as a pastor and as a father.

OLD FOLKS' DAY was observed at 25th Street Baptist Church last week by the Flower Circle. This group made many of those in nursing homes happy by going by for them, bringing them to church and letting them at a lovely dinner.
There ought to be more groups like this one. It's good to remember those who are so often forgotten — our elder citizens now living in nursing homes.

I enjoyed a wonderful day last Sunday as guest of the missionary society of Second Baptist Church, Rushville, and Rev. J. B. Bradley, pastor.
I was guest speaker for their Women's Day program.
Members of the society showed us what wonderful hostesses they can be by serving a really lovely dinner. And following the service, a reception was held in the dining room of the church.
Among special guests was Miss Julia E. Horelas, of Panama City, Panama. Mrs. Beatrice Flowers.

IT WAS MY PLEASURE last week to assist with the night vacation church school held at Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church. Rev. Jesse Fox, pastor. More than 100 children attended, and they had so much fun many of them wanted to go all summer.
Appreciation cards were given the entire staff including Mesdames Beatrice Fox, Irene Soules, C. C. Cornell, W. B. Biggers, Alberta Powell and Annie Norris Richardson and the Misses Clema Rodgers and Jessie Smith.
The children had a special project to raise money for food for boys and girls in other lands.

While the school at Mt. Lebanon has closed, other vacation Bible schools will be opening soon. Let me urge all parents to send their children. They will learn Bible stories, crafts, music — and have a lot of fun.
Schools open next week at South Calvary Baptist Church, at 9; First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, at 1, and Northside New Era Baptist Church, at 9.

CONGRATULATIONS to Rev. C. M. Marsh of Witherspoon United Presbyterian Church on the completion of their new educational building.

The addition, named for the late Dr. H. L. Hummons, will be dedicated Sunday at 3:30. The dedication address will be given by Dr. A. K. Stewart, executive secretary of the Board of American Missions.
It's really a beautiful building, and you should drop around and see it.

All graduates who are members of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, will be honored Friday of next week with a reception given by the scholarship committee of the church.

I attended a banquet recently and some of the people there talked so much you couldn't hear the guest speaker. Let's watch our manners, now.

All men of the city are invited to attend Bethel A.M.E. Church's Men's Day program all day Sunday.

FOUR MEMBERS of the Letha Ervin Intermediate Sunday School class received attendance awards recently. Harold Batie received first place, followed by Beverly Black, Wardean Lang and Wardell Finney.

Attention, Christian youth! Make plans now to attend the training camp, Aug. 17 to 24 at Lake Geneva Wis. Last year, 40 youths attended from here. Call the Church Federation for more information.

Mrs. B. A. Norris, Second Christian Church, has been elected to the executive committee of the state Christian convention.

Last Monday, Elder F. F. Young, of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, celebrated his 85th birthday with a special service at the church. Mt. Paran Baptist Church's nurses, ushers, choir and pastor, Rev. C. H. Bell, who delivered the message, turned out in full numbers.
Elder Young received many lovely gifts and a generous love token. Incidentally, the minister took his driving test last week and scored 94!

"Sidelights" business, industry and labor

By WM. A. CHAMBERS

JOHN R. HARKNESS is president of the Fairmount Glass Works, 1301 S. Keystone, one of the city's most widely-known industrial or manufacturing organizations. The big bottle-making firm, over a period of nearly 70 years, seemingly has bypassed all symptoms of business recession, and in every recent months announced a two-phase expansion project amounting to about $3 million.

The internationally-known organization represents a highlight in the city's diversified scope of industries which contribute to the evolution of a generally healthy economy. In this connection, an executive of the firm observed recently that people continue to eat, drink and create a "super" market for glass packs. Therefore there is no recession in the glass container industry.

The expansion project at Fairmount will create 200 new jobs, with about 150 workers expected to be added to the payroll by next January. The new production facilities will increase the capacity of the firm to about 450 tons per 24 hours. The plant operates around-the-clock, 365 days of the year. A high percentage of production workers through the years have been Negro people.

Glass containers made for many industries include a variety for food, pharmaceutical, liquor, wine and beer, proprietary drugs, chemicals and cosmetics.

HORACE H. PAGE is owner and operator of the Horace H. Page
Coal & Fuel Oil firm at 342 W.

10th, now in its 51st year in the local business field. The firm sells all of the popular grades of domestic and steam coals and fuel oils.

The main plant is located at the 10th street address, and a second yard is located at 2412 Rader.

Looking back upon more than 50 years' experience in a business field of keen competition, sometimes keen tactics and much adventure, Mr. Page observed that he has some fond recollections of both "ups and downs." From this point he observed that he would try it again, if confronted with the opportunity. However, one of his major concerns is finding a promising young man to train to succeed him in management of the company.

FLINN H. MOSES, owner and operator of the Flinn H. Moses Beauty Supply Co., is doing business this week in a new location, 120-22 W. 30 h. The company is an outlet on both the wholesale and retail basis for several scores of nationally-known beauty products, toiletries and hair preparations. Mr. Moses, with more than 15 years' experience in this line of business, has operated his own business longer than 10 years.

He is the traveling representative of his firm, Harold Harding is a local salesman and Mrs. Sarah

Pringle is the office manager.

WILLIAM H. ERVIN is a widely-known salesman and agent of the United Insurance Company of America, 312 E. Washington, with home offices in Chicago. The company offers all forms of life insurance, and hospitalization and sick and accident policies.

Operating from coast to coast,
the company employs several thousand people through the ranges of personnel, including several hundred Negro persons and some of these in the managerial brackets.

Mr. Ervin is a veteran of more than 22 years' experience in the insurance field. He was recently cited as the top man in the local office on quarterly reports for the beginning of the next fiscal year.

In recent years he has been cited in the district several times. Two or three citations or awards have been compared with the tops across the entire field of operations of the company.

He prefers to work in the field, but about 10 years ago he served as an assistant supervisor. He declined the offer of such a post in very recent years. The staff of the local district office includes 30-odd members. Among these five or six agents are Negro persons.

TIMOTHY MILLS is manager and operator of the Mission Laundry-Rite Self-Service Laundry, 523 Indiana, which is presently observing its 10th anniversary.

Mr. Mills is an unassuming enterprising and widely-known young business man. In very recent years he has served in a top executive role in the state organization of self-service laundry operators or owners, and is at the present time

vice-president of the Indianapolis
Self-Service Laundry Association.

He is a native of the city, a product of local public schools and a graduate of the University of Minnesota. The laundry is owned by father and son. His father, Grover

C. Mills, is a minister of the Pentecostal Apostolic Church. Mrs.

Mary L. Robinson is supervising attendant of the laundry.

S. S. Congress

The National Baptist Sunday School Congress of the National Baptist Convention was to seat some 8,000 delegates at its annual session week at Fort Worth, Tex. Attending from Indianapolis are Rev. C. H. Bell, Mt. Paran Baptist Church, head of the transportation committee; R. V. and Mrs. William Sweat, Mrs. Reba Diggs, Mrs. Harrison Dawson, Mrs. Blossom Jones, Rev. and Mrs. H. T. Toliver, Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Highbaugh, Mrs. Rosetta Rodgers, Rev. Walter Highbaugh, Mrs. Rose Mitchell, Mrs. Mark Cravens Sr., Joseph Graves and Miss Willa Thomas.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Dallen are attending from Anderson, and Rev. F. W. Weathers will travel from Richmond.

NATIONAL OFFICERS expected to attend included Dr. M. A. B. Fuller, senior women's president, and Dr. D. C. Pettway, general president of the National Baptist Convention of America.

Guest speakers appearing on the program have been Dr. A. C. Allen, president of the Lynchburg (Va.) Theological Seminary; Dr. W. M. Downs, Cleveland; Dr. P. S. Wilkerson, vice-president of the Baptist World Alliance; Dr. W. N. Daniels, Chicago; Dr. E. C. Smith of Howard University and Dr. E. M. Elmore, Louisville.

The congress has earned a world-wide reputation as a religious training school and during its many years of operation has issued more than 20,000 diplomas to workers at ending the annual sessions.

Marriages

If Bacon was right, and "A man finds himself seven years older the day after his marriage," several Indianapolis are awakening these mornings to find themselves much older than they thought. Marriage licenses have recently been issued to:

Edwin P. Cook, 22, 621 E. 13th, and Anna R. Justice, 18, 1554 Carrollton;

James Wilson, 41, 25 N. Bloomington, and Beulah M. Mundy, 33, 542 Milroy;

James Eldridge, 26, 1639 Martindale, and Mildred Carraway, 26, 1639 Martindale;

Ronald L. Southern, 20, 4161/2 W. 16th Place, and Constance J. Petty, 16, 2129 Allfree;

Ernest R. Barnett Jr., 10, 2722 N. Illinois, and Gwendolyn L. Baker, 18, 2319 Northwestern;

William R. Ballard, 20, 2719 Burton, and Helen M. Chubb, 18, 543 W. 27th;

Joe Beamon, 23, 2860 N. Capitol, and Mamie L. Jackson, 22, 2828 N. Illinois;

Jesse L. Hyche, 24, 2144 Belmont, and Naomi M. Muncie, 21, 2745 N. Keystone;

Alpha Home Plans
House-Warming

Plans for a "house-warming" at which the public will be invited to see the newly-decorated and beautified Alpha Home were made Thursday of last week when members of the Alpha Home Association held their monthly pitch-in dinner meeting.

The renovation program has been going on for several weeks, according to Mrs. Grace Bryant, president. "We are proud of our accomplishment, which came about only through the cooperative efforts of all the women," she commented.

Highlighting the meeting was a talk by Mrs. Ida Bryant, whose mother, Mrs. Hulda Webb, founded the home in 1894, at the first home for aged women in the state, regardless of race.

Y 'Monte Carlo'
Party Is Success

Mrs. Bernard Brent, general chairman of the "Monte Carlo Family Party" held last Saturday at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, has announced that the affair was an outstanding success, attracting a large number of fathers, mothers and children.

Especially popular were the "Children's Festival" under the direction of Mesdames Daisy Borel and James Williams, the "Water Carnival" with Mrs. Raymond Oglesby in charge and the smorgasbord under the chairmanship of Mrs. John Brown.

Also attracting many people was the card party under the chairmanship of Mrs. Roy Howard and Miss Beatrice Bettis, while a highlight was the crowning of Miss Beverly Linsey as "Miss Phyllis Wheatley for 1958," under the chairmanship of Mrs. Eldridge Morrison.

Other members of the committee were Mesdames Orton Shelton, Isaac Cooper Jr., W. L. Crice, Kerley S. Crawley, Rothel Walden, Clarence Simms, Joseph Butler, Cecil A. Johnson and Pauline Chavis and Miss Bessie Revels.

Wrong Address
For New Mother

Last week, The Recorder ran a picture of a mother and daughter who recently gave birth to new babies, just one day apart. The address of one of the mothers, Mrs. Floyd Webster, was erroneously listed in hospital records, our information source, as 118 W. 36th — the residence of Mrs. Marion Madison.

Mrs. Webster's address is 2453 Guilford.

And if everyone involved would please to forgive us for any confusion the error might have caused.

Science Shrinks Piles
New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain,
Stops Itching as it Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

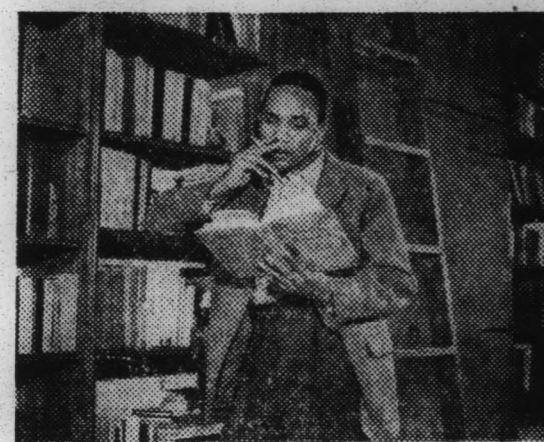

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

"Luckies are my cigarette," says
TV producer George Norford

GEORGE NORFORD is a man with ideas. One of them is "The Subject Is Jazz," the hit TV show he produces for NBC. Mr. Norford puts ideas in print, too—he's written short stories and plays. His idea of a good cigarette is Lucky Strike. "Taste makes all the difference," he says. "Luckies taste better!"

EXCITING as television is to him, Mr. Norford is just as intrigued by books. He has a library full of them (above). For enjoyment, George Norford picks Lucky Strike.

LUCKY'S taste comes from fine tobacco—rich, good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. Says George Norford, "Luckies are the best-tasting cigarette I ever smoked!"

CLEANS YOUR BREATH WHILE IT CLEANS YOUR TEETH

Chatter for the College Set

By BILL RASPBERRY

All right, you can stop rolling on the floor, kicking and screaming now. I'm back again. You DID miss the column last week, didn't you? What's that? Oh, you just didn't get around to sending those telegrams? Okay, I'll forgive you this time, although you certainly must have had time, since apparently not much of social significance to the college set happened during the past several days.

To mention the exception... Caronella "Connie" Adams, neat little item from St. Louis, spent the weekend of May 31 here with the Lionel F. Artises and played hostess to a small gathering that Saturday night. Helping to dispose of absolutely fantastic quantities of macaroni and cheese, fried chicken, and a wide assortment of breads, crackers, chips, dips and relishes were Charlene and Patti Cox, Mason Bryant, Sheila Shelton, Christine Chavis, David Snyder, Carolyn Parker and a couple of others, including your columnist.

"Was a nice, quiet gathering — and extremely enjoyable. Connie's back on the job now before returning to work on her master's degree."

Something else must have happened that week, but I didn't write them down — and you know how poor my memory is. Slightly more current is the news of the party, Carole Baltimore had for her Tennessee State classmate, attractive Yvonne Bryant. That one, Monday night, June 2, was attended by Warren Buster, Bobby Brown, Patti Cox, Charlene Cox, Hank Robertson, Bobbie Taylor, Reggie Bundles, Garnet Landers, Jimmie Hill, Ronnie Messer, Sandy Carpenter, Wanda Roster, Wanda Taylor, Jean Smith, Glendora Smith, Judy Marbury and tons of others.

I'm not surprised to hear that it was really nice — Baltimore parties usually are!

I guess fewer people were finished with finals last week than I had imagined. Apparently not much else happened until Saturday night, when the Intercollegiate club entertained at the Walker Casino with a semi-formal dance.

The theme "Out of This World" was strikingly appropriate, for everyone had an absolutely heavenly time! Decorations included balloon-type Sputniks, rockets, and scads of miniature space-men. The music furnished by Larry Ridley's combo was both listenable and danceable — a rare combination these days! (Don't tell the Musicians Union, but I think the guys must have played another engagement during intermission!)

Active members of the Intercollegiate are Helen Brown, Betty Collins, Ruthie Collins, Barbara Crowder, John Due, Lola Glass, Kay Grimes, Dannis Harris, Betty Hobson, Clifford Kerley, Elizabeth Jackson, Marilyn Milton, Melvin McClerklin, Ethel Ogburn, Esther Quarles, Bill Raspberry, Charles Roberts, Irena Stenson, Louella Stenson and Carole Stevenson.

Guests included members of most of the town's leading young adult clubs, many of the swiftest college setters, including those just returned from school, and a few out-of-towners.

Since I'm president of the club, modestly forbids my saying much more about the affair, but I can tell you with all sincerity — you shoulda been there!

Following the Casino cavorting, Elizabeth Jackson entertained members and guests with a breakfast at her home. Unfortunately, I was unable to make either Elizabeth's breakfast or the one Forest Jones gave that same early morning, since I and some 50 million others were late arrivals at the pre-graduation party Gilbert Taylor and Ed Smith had at Camp Kiwanis on the Southside.

Apparently, before the two Indiana Central seniors came up with the idea, no one had noticed the outstanding party possibilities of the seeded camp, with all its rustic charm. Special guests were members of Central's graduating class.

Local Kappas red-carpeted two neophyte brothers, David Martin of Rochester, N. Y., and Norvel Broom, Gary, at a Saturday afternoon banquet at Son's Diner, 40th and Cornelius. At Purdue, where both mer are freshmen, Martin is majoring in metallurgy, Broom in chemical engineering.

Evelyn Rice, soon to be Mrs. Cameron King, was feted at a shower given by Sheila Lyles, Tuesday, June 3. Both Evelyn and Cameron are students at IU Extension.

I'm not sure how one goes about saluting himself, but anyhow, congratulations to us! You see, dear readers, I was graduated Sunday from Indiana Central College, along with Mary Ann Hobbs, Ed Smith, Gilbert Taylor and Clara Woodley. Special praise to Mary Ann, who graduated cum laude!

Also Sunday, Bill Turner became an alumnus of John Herron Art Institute. Congratulations, Mad Artist!

"Youth Faces Integration" was the subject of a panel discussion featuring members of the Tri-State club of All Souls Unitarian Church and members of the NAACP Youth Council. A report of the discussion, held Sunday at the church, will be found elsewhere in this dispatch. Participants included Kirk Sargent and Kathy Gessner, of All Souls, and Kay Grimes and Robert Short, of the Youth Council.

The Calypso club has announced the Thursday night closing of its "Miss Charm" Mr. Equine" contest. Winners will be crowned Friday at a lucky 13 dance at the YWCA. Why Lucky 13? It seems Rosie Ann Cheatham and her twin brother were born June 13 (that's lucky?); Reggie is 13 minutes older than his sister, and the twins weighed a total of 13 pounds at birth!

Congratulations to the Cheathams and to Barbara Crowder, who will celebrate her Friday 13 birthday with a trip to Chicago.

And while I'm making with the best wishes, heartiest ones to Mamie Jackson and Joe Beaman, who will become one in ceremonies June 14 at Bethel AME Church, and to Jeannette Diggs, who will become Mrs. Donald Sylvester Dent June 2, at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA.

The local NAACP Youth Council will hold a panel discussion on "The Negro Crime Rate" Sunday, June 29, in the assembly room of Simpson Methodist Church, 30th and Capitol. The discussion is set for 4:30. Friday night of this week, the group will sponsor a teenage dance at the Senate Avenue YMCA.

I leave you with this thought for the ladies: Keeping your boyfriend in hot water won't make him tender! See you around.

Evansville Masonic Club to Hear Ridley as First Negro Speaker

By WILLIE EFFIE THOMAS
JOHN E. RIDLEY

EVANSVILLE — A major step in the ever-improving picture of race relations in Evansville will be taken Monday when a prominent Masonic club hears for the first time a Negro speaker.

John E. Ridley, director of Carver Center and a prominent civic leader, will speak for the June luncheon meeting of the H-Twelve club Monday at the Vendome Hotel.

The announcement was made this week by Peter L. McGrath, Republican state representative during the last Indiana General Assembly and a widely-known Evansville realtor. He is program chairman for June.

Greatly in demand as an effective speaker, Ridley is a graduate of Lincoln University. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity and is active in Alexander AME Church.

Only Masons can belong to the 60-member H-Twelve club.

"AS THE DOORS OF High School Close" was theme of the commencement program of Lincoln high school, held last week, and talks on the theme were made by graduates following the welcome made by Thomas Hoyt, president of the senior class.

Making the talks were Betty Mitchell, "The Challenge of Our Day"; Owen Sebree, "Our Answer to Our Challenge"; Bernice Coleman, "Youth's Place in Today's World"; Geraldine Sandefur, salutatorian, "Faith in Our American Way of Life"; and Bonita Smith, valedictorian, "Our Hope for Tomorrow."

The class was presented by the school principal, Dr. Charles E. Rochelle, while Mrs. Taylor Chapman and Dr. James Morlock awarded diplomas.

Receiving awards for highest honors in citizenship and scholarship were Bonita Smith, Geraldine Sandefur, Betty Mitchell, Owen Sebree, Bernice Coleman, Margaret Wiley, Thomas Hoyt and Betty Kivel.

The Anna and Benjamin Bosse scholarships went to Geraldine Sandefur, Betty Mitchell, Bonita Smith, Betty Kivel and Thomas Hoyt, while Constance Roberts, Maryllis Grimes, Margaret Wiley and Jesse Clardy were listed as alternates.

In addition Miss Sandefur received the Evansville College academic scholarship, and Hoyt earned the Evansville College ministerial scholarship. An academic scholarship to Lane College, given through the United Negro College Fund, was earned by Annie Gold, while Constance Roberts received the N. O. M. award.

Other awards received by Miss Smith included those of the Evansville Association of College Women, Phi Delta Kappa sorority, the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority's Exceptional Achievement Award in scholarship and leadership and the Arion Music Award.

The latter award was also won by Miss Paulina Washington. Miss Mitchell also received the Quota club award and the DAR citizenship award, while Miss Kivel received in addition to those already named the awards of the Evansville Business and Professional Women's club and the Woman's Rotary club.

The invocation was given by Rev. Cloyce Cecil, while Rev. Charles H. King Jr. gave the benediction.

Frank Lenning Rebids For Secretary of State

Frank A. Lenning, Bloomfield business man with a long record of public service, has announced that he will seek reelection as secretary of state and will submit his name to the Republican nominating convention in Indianapolis on June 27.

Lenning was elected to his first term as secretary of the state of Indiana in 1956 and assumed his duties on December 1 of that year.

He is an honor graduate of Linton high school and a graduate of Central Normal College with a Bachelor of Science degree.

President of the Bloomfield Brick Company, he is former owner of the Hoosier Orchards, Vincennes and Jasonville Leader, a Republican weekly newspaper.

After being graduated from Linton high school in 1922, Lenning was awarded a scholarship to Franklin College, which he attended during summer sessions from 1922 through 1926.

During succeeding summers through 1933, he attended Indiana State Teachers College and Central Normal College, obtaining his degree from the latter institution in 1933.

HE WAS A TEACHER and principal in the Linton schools during the years he was attending college summer sessions.

Lenning became active in politics as Seventh District manager for Raymond Springer in the gubernatorial campaign of 1936.

Subsequently he served in the same capacity for Raymond Willis, Glen Hillis, Ralph F. Gates, Homer E. Capehart and William E. Jenner.

He was secretary to Congressman Gerald W. Landis from 1939 to 1942, and was Greene County clerk from 1943 through 1950. He was Greene County Republican chairman from 1948 to 1952.

Lenning served also as treasurer and finance chairman of the Seventh District Committee almost continuously, in one capacity or another, from 1936 to 1956.

He is a member of the Elks, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Eagles and Moose Lodges and Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. He has also served on the board of trustees of the Freeman-Greene County Hospital the past nine years and held directorships of the Greene County Chapter of American Red Cross, Society for Crippled Children, Tuberculosis Association, Greater Linton club and Bloomfield Civic and Community club.

Another senior, Miss Sandra Brown, won an award in typing for 60 words a minute. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Frankie Adams.

THE CECILIA GREGG Missionary Society of Allen Chapel AME church met Monday night of last week at the home of Mrs. Marie Durden, in charge.

The chaplain, Mrs. Carter, presented Mrs. Madeline Irvin, who conducted devotions and spoke on "They That Wait upon the Lord Shall Renew Their Strength."

Listing 11 rules for success, she said, "Be yourself, cultivate desirable qualities; be alert, look for opportunities to express yourself; be positive, determine your goal and the route to it; be systematic, take one step at a time; be persistent, hold your course."

"Be a worker, work your brains more than your body; be a student, know your job; be fair, treat the other man as you would be treated; be temperate, avoid excess in saying anything; be confident, have faith that cannot be weakened; be a Christian, make Christ your Leader and Savior."

She added, "As missionary workers we must start with Christ within ourselves. Then we will be able to carry Christ to others in our own country as well as to other countries of the earth."

Plans are being made for a formal birthday party in the near future, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Evelyn Cooper.

A vegetable luncheon was served to Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Reddick and Mesdames Naomi Warren, Daisy Brown and Evelyn Cooper, in addition to those already named.

Next meeting will be Monday at 6:30 with Mrs. Margaret Davis, 316 W. 16th.

Vinnie Taylor, Carrie Thomas, David Ware, Margie Wickware, Grace Williams, Virginia Williams, LaFerne Wilson, Tommie Wilson and Marvye Wisdom.

REV. JAMES EDWARD GILLIS, pastor of Sweeney Street Baptist Church, Owensboro, Ky., was speaker for the separation services of 5th grade pupils from the Chestnut-Walnut school, held Monday of last week. He was introduced by Alfred D. Wiley, school principal.

A symposium featured Lola McGee, Juliette Johnson, Georgia Collins, Joseph Collier, Nathan Dixon and Arthur Outlaw, while Derethia Johnson and William Gillis participated in the key ceremony. The class gift was presented by Mary Childress.

The invocation was given by Ronald Bailey, and Felicia Pitt extended the welcome. Harriette Moss was a soloist, and other music was furnished by grade groups.

"Carver's Funland" began Monday at Carver Center, featuring a program of interest for all age levels from 9 to noon each day. Continued on Page 14

Down HOPKINSVILLE Way

By JIMMY IRVIN

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. — The Clardy-Bronaugh Chapter No. 226 of the American Legion and its ladies auxiliary conducted memorial services for the war dead on Memorial Day at Cave Spring cemetery.

Sgt. Gilbert Waters placed a wreath on a grave honoring all veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean Conflict. Commander Walton Smith was in charge.

Rev. Philip Scott delivered the baccalaureate sermon for the Trenton-ernoon at Queen Anne Baptist Church, talking on "Go Straight."

The graduation exercises were held May 21, with Rev. J. D. Hale, presiding elder of the Hopkinsville District of the CME Church, talking on "The Three Dimensions."

Luther J. Buckner is school principal.

A group of civic-minded women recently made plans for a community-wide service which will include a home for the aged, a building to use as a missionary kitchen, and overnight rooming for lodgers. Many other needs of the community were also discussed.

The group is soliciting volunteer members and other interested persons. Its first effort will be a rummage sale Saturday at the Domestic Insurance Company office.

Mrs. Overa L. Priestley is president, and Mrs. Bessie P. Buckner is secretary-reporter.

THE HOME ECONOMICS department of Attucks high school is open during June for all homemakers and students having home-making problems. Students wishing to use the school facilities to complete their home projects are urged to attend.

Mesdames R. C. West and B. M. Thompson are supervising the program.

Homecoming services will be held Sunday at Porter Chapel CME Church. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Jackson Jr., will preach at 11, and Rev. W. L. McGowan, pastor of Freeman Chapel CME Church, will deliver the afternoon sermon.

A large number of out-of-town members are expected.

Richard Gray Jr. and son, of Indianapolis, were recent guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gray. Making the return trip with them was Miss Lucille Quarles, who will spend two weeks in Indianapolis visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. and Mrs. Arlander Majors, Nashville, were holiday weekend guests of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gray, and other relatives.

MRS. THELMA JOHNSON, Evansville, was recent house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Foston and son, Rev. G. L. Foston.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Anderson Jr. and children, of Detroit, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Anderson Sr., and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Olive Lynch was hostess to the Jolly Glee club at her home on Monday night of last week. During the recreational period the group held a handkerchief shower honoring members who had birthdays during the month. A delightful covered-dish luncheon was served.

Mrs. Erma A. Williams is reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Caldwell entertained the Ebony club at their home last Saturday night. Plans were completed for a picnic to be held in August.

Next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. George Fleming. James Kay is president, and Mrs. Vera Buchanan is reporter.

Last rites for Mrs. Sammie Henry Wilson were held June 2 at Moore's Mission Baptist Church, with Rev. O. L. McKinney officiating. The Adams Funeral Home was in charge of burial in Cave Spring cemetery. Mrs. Wilson died May 31 at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joe Majors, following an illness of several months.

An active member of her church, she was a member of its missionary society.

Survivors are her mother, Mrs. Mollie Henry; two sisters, Mesdames Metress Prayer and Georgia Majors; two brothers, William H. and Louis Henry, and several nieces and nephews.

MRS. MATTIE THOMPSON died May 27 at Benton Harbor, Mich., and the funeral was conducted May 31 at Bloomfield Baptist Church, Cadiz, with Rev. J. E. Ewing delivering the eulogy. The Babe Funeral Home is in charge of burial in the Bloomfield cemetery.

She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Fannie Hughes of Benton Harbor and Mesdames Flora Sholar and Ollie Carliss, Cadiz; two brothers, Jack and John Bingham, also of Cadiz, and a number of nieces and nephews.

The funeral of Mrs. Vinie Richardson, who died June 5 at a local hospital following a brief illness, was held June 7 at Cave Spring Baptist Church, Corvallis.

Rev. H. E. Dillard officiated. Burial was in Cave Spring cemetery with Adams Funeral Home in charge.

Surviving are the husband, Harry Richardson; a son, Roy Lee Richardson, Chicago; two grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Willie Montgomery, Paducah; a brother, Ernest Baker, Evansville, and several nieces and nephews.

Mississippi Madness

Commitment of Professor Clennon King to a state insane hospital because he tried to enter summer school at the University of Mississippi brought strongly ironical reflections to a Recorder newsman who was in Jackson, Miss., at the same time.

It is difficult for an ordinary Hoosier to visit Mississippi for the first time without arriving at the distinct impression that he is in one vast insane asylum. The utter poverty, squalor, filth and inhumanity in which the Negro working people of the Delta region are forced to live, beat on the senses along with the state's tropical heat until one feels like a traveler through Hell. As your car flashes through a small cotton town, a rickety collection of sticks and shacks is the colored section where throngs of Negro youths stand at the side of the street wearing on their faces no hope and little future; a few blocks away are a handful of white youngsters carefully segregated from contact with real life — and actually having even less future.

In case Professor King does not know it, this is Hospitality Month in Mississippi. There are Mississippians — white Mississippians — who desire and are making efforts for a better life for themselves and their state, and they welcome white strangers (even Northern ones) with courtesy and good cheer. But they are utterly blind to the obvious truth that they will make no progress while they condemn Negro children to live like wild animals in their country districts; while a harsh economic system plants the cotton around the very walls of the Negro sharecropper's humble cabin; while diseased whites are segregated into one public restroom, and healthy brown people into another.

Not so long ago, indeed, Professor King showed himself a loyal Mississippian when he defended segregation and attacked the NAACP and the U. S. Supreme Court in a series of newspaper articles which was syndicated to many Southern daily papers. They didn't consider him insane then; the fact that they do now, causes us to wonder what would happen to one normal human being who would wander into a country of lunatics.

For our money, the sanest person we met in the Magnolia State was the statue of General Grant at Vicksburg. — C. S. P.

Graduation Gives Chance for Service

Every year about this time the tragedy of high school and college graduation takes place for thousands of Negroes. Why a tragedy? Because so few of them are ready for a commencement into a society where their contributions are needed. Because so few of them have any concept of a goal outside themselves when thinking in terms of success. Because so few of them are mature enough to recognize the inescapable duty binding every member of a minority group to think in terms of group well-being as well as individual welfare — or even ready for the planting of the seeds of such concern. Because so few of them dare use their newly-acquired tools to help bring about a better place in which to live.

High school graduates not planning to enter college are too ready to adopt a defeatist attitude. "What can I do, poorly equipped as I am?" they ask. "How can I do anything worth while in a time when a college degree is an absolute necessity? The way things are now, I'll be lucky to keep a roof over my head and clothes on my back." The college graduate, on the other hand, is too apt to think, "I've got it made now. I'll die happy after I've had a Cadillac, plenty jewelry, fine clothes, good food and liquor and a fine home."

A purposeful life can face every graduate, if he has courage, faith in his fellow-men and himself and the sense to discover what he can contribute, then give it. A Sunday school teacher in the humblest shanty church can fill his pupils with the desire to forge ahead; the successful technician owes it to his brothers to help prepare them all for living in an atomic age. Each intelligent person can help eradicate slums and lend to the environmental factors which will alleviate the Negro's social ills. The graduate must grow to realize that his real mark of success is the contribution he makes to a growing society, not the successfulness with which he can withdraw into well-heeled social snobbishness.

Are We Lacking

It's too bad that Flag Day falls on a Saturday this year, as it will probably be completely ignored by people used to having a day off anyway. At least when it occurs on an ordinary working day there are a few people who wonder vaguely why they have the day off, or why Federal offices are closed. What we're fussing about now is that Flag Day has become practically meaningless to too many of us Americans. And this lack of concern can only mean that we Americans are losing our patriotism. Our fussing and fuming about American prestige and America Firstism savor too much of mere empty cackling when we stack them against our lack of respect and love for our nation's flag.

This indifference extends across color lines, too. In fact, many Negroes are consciously anti-American in their false thinking that they are not living in the best of all nations. Too many of us are falling for the Communist propaganda which seeks "One World" made up of the darker races of our planet and are confusing ideas of racial chauvinism, progress, one worldism, Americanism, and various other types of isms with each other and coming out perfectly befuddled about where the American Negro stands in it all. Too many times we come to the conclusion that we'd be better off in some other country — Russia, perhaps.

It's a delusion! Color prejudice is not an American phenomenon, and we're kidding ourselves if we think we'd be better off in any other nation where we formed as major minority as we do here. A few individuals could go most places and forget their Negro ancestry, but just a few, not a million! As Americans we have the common American love of freedom and the vision of equality under the law which ARE American phenomena. Is it conceivable that the pressing fight for full-fledged citizenship rights and privileges of a once-slaved race could be waged in any other nation as vehemently and reverendly as it is being fought by democracy-loving Americans in the United States? Especially with any assurance of success?

Let us love the land of our birth and stop selling it cheap. Let us recognize our short-comings and never let up in our struggle to correct every wrong. Let us see ourselves rightfully as a nation among nations, thanking our God Who has allowed us to enjoy pre-eminence among nations, loving our role of leadership and respecting it sufficiently to want to supply good leadership. Let us love America enough to be good citizens, pressing unceasingly for our rights but working unceasingly to contribute to our nation's greatness. Let us love the country enough to display its flag Saturday and respect it all the time.

UNTIL THAT THEORY IS DENOUNCED, WE FORFEIT OUR WORLD LEADERSHIP.

France "Sells Her Soul" For the Illusion of Power

Millions of non-Frenchmen over the world were shocked a few days ago when General Charles DeGaulle, the striking "man on horseback," came to power in France, thus effectively ending the shaky Fourth Republic.

RAMSEY

Students of history have long regarded France as a liberty-loving country. Even the name France means "free," and it was the writings of 18th Century Frenchmen — Voltaire, Rousseau and Montesquieu — which inspired the Fathers of American Independence.

In fact, practically all of the ideas couched in the Declaration of Independence came directly from the monumental work "The Spirit of the Laws," by the French nobleman, Baron de Montesquieu.

The storming of the Bastille by downtrodden Frenchmen on July 14, 1789, has long been regarded by lovers of human freedom as one of the great milestones on the road to universal human freedom.

It was probably due partially to the tradition of French devotion to freedom that two American administrations made France one of the chief units of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and that millions of dollars of American aid were shipped to France in the hope of building her strength against a possible total conquest of the whole of Europe by the Soviet Union.

BUT THE STUDENTS of history and the makers of American foreign policy failed to take into account the source of France's pristine power. France as a world power got most of her strength from her vast colonial possessions.

Before World War II, French colonial possessions stretching around the globe totaled almost five million square miles with a total population of 130 million inhabitants.

But since the war, France has lost in rapid succession one colonial possession after another.

Beginning in 1943 when she lost Lebanon and Syria, France has finally lost all her positions in Asia, including six holdings in India in 1950, Laos in 1949 and all of Indochina in 1955.

None of these possessions was given up without a struggle.

For eight years Frenchmen fought the colonial peoples of Asia, only to lose in the end 600,000 square miles of territory and 45 million subject peoples.

Like the other former great colonial powers, Belgium, the Netherlands and Great Britain, France has lost practically all of her colonial possessions outside the African continent.

And the flame of nationalism which swept away the Asiatic colonies right after the war is now blazing in Africa.

A HARD CORE of Frenchmen who hanker after the "good old days" grew afraid that the weak national government would grant independence to the people of Algeria, who have been under the French yoke since 1830.

The Frenchmen living in Algeria — and outnumbered by the "natives" 10 to one — rose up against the national government in Paris for fear that it would abandon the 850,000-square-mile colony with its nine million people.

These Frenchmen have called on General DeGaulle to hold the line against the native population of Algeria. They have not even expressed a willingness to concede any political power to the largely disfranchised Mohammedans who make up the vast majority of the population.

Faced with the fact that for the first time in the modern era France is a second-rate power, the followers of the general are willing to revert to their former colonial ruthlessness in order to maintain the prestige of their remaining colonial possessions.

Under the weak Fourth Republic, France has fought the Algerian nationalists for almost four years and has maintained in the colony more than half of her fighting men.

SUFFERING THE ILLUSION that the retention of her African colonies will restore France to her former position as a world power, millions of Frenchmen are willing not only to continue to trample on the necks of her African colonials, but even to give up democratic government in France itself.

Whether General DeGaulle actually becomes a dictator is left up to him, but he is mandated by his supporters to hold on to Algeria and France's dwindling colonial empire at all costs.

The rise of the general puts the United States squarely on the spot.

Once again we will be faced with the choice, as we were immediately after World War II, of supporting a colonial power or supporting submerged people who want to be free.

Right after the war we threw our support to the colonial powers. And if the recent debates on statehood for Alaska and Hawaii and our attitudes on Puerto Rico or any indication, General DeGaulle can count on us to supply bombs and planes for him to deliver "civilization" to the hapless natives of Algeria and other French colonies in Africa.

France has sold her soul in the vain hope of gaining a place of respect in the family of nations.

Will we put ours on the line to back up this futile attempt to stop the march of human freedom?

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

The Times of the Judges

By the Union Baptist Alliance
Rev. J. T. HIGHBAUGH, Editor

(BACKGROUND SCRIPTURE: Judges 2:11-23, chapters 4 and 5, 21-25. MEMORY VERSE: Isaiah 55:7)

Thank God for the tall oaks like Moses and Joshua who stood out and up among the purest of men! In the travels of our lesson, they are gone now. "Moses my servant is dead." They buried the bones of Joseph in Shechem, and "it came to pass that Joshua the son of Nun died."

Thus marked the end of an era. We who are still in Indianapolis have seen our tall oaks grow and tower. And now they sleep with the fathers. Madam C. J. Walker, Drs. B. F. Farrell, S. A. Furniss, B. J. Westbrook and N. A. Seymour and Messrs. F. B. Ransom, W. E. Grubbs and John Jones Sr. are all gone — and many more like them. But God is still raising up great leaders who because of their sterling character and moral bravery mark time and eternity also.

A PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY (Jdgs. 2:16-19). You see, the narrators of the Book of Judges lived some years after the times of the book. They picked up the facts from those who lived and saw emerging from the given facts a code of ethics, a moral reasoning out of the facts.

Look at this: "Nevertheless the Lord raised up judges, which delivered them out of the hands of those that spoiled them."

"And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a-whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves to them: they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the Lord; but they did not so."

"And when the Lord raised them up judges, then the Lord was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judges; for it repented the Lord because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them."

"And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they returned, and corrupted themselves more than their fathers."

This is a tragic moral picture. Look at the vicious cycle: God raised up a leader, and God was with him. They obeyed as long as that leader agitated them to do so. But then the leader died, and they mourned a few days. Then they forgot every bit of their lesson, and were soon enslaved again by sin. Then they acted worse than their fathers.

Then God raised another judge, and the vicious circle went round and round again. History has been doing that for thousands of years. It teaches that history is History, basically; live out God's story in history, and you prosper and enjoy prosperity and freedom; live out your own story and be spoiled and plundered — this is the course of every race and nation and individual: God has laid His story in history, the course of time: live with His story, His will and live happily and healthily. Live against it and die, hard though you live.

So, "I love to tell the story Of unseen things above, Of Jesus and His glory, Of Jesus and His love."

A WOMAN TO THE RESCUE (Jdgs. 4:4-9). No! No! God does not generally use women as He did Deborah. He generally uses women no further than the sphere of the home. But as long as He has no violent weaklings like Barah, who cannot and will not act in great moral decisions, why not?

Shall the completely helpless endure a living death forever because no man has guts enough to speak for Him? Are masculine pride and vanity so indispensable that a whole race or nation, or church must live in the dark forever?

So thank God for the Deborahs, the Hannahs, the Sojourner Truths, the myriads of great women of our church and society who by consecration have subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, quenched the fires of violence and escaped the edge of the sword.

Out of men's weakness they were made strong for the fight.

I thank God for the mothers in my Israel who, when I was a boy, picked me up off the street, took me to church to hear Elder F. F. Young and his evangelists preach, or sent me to school, others who opened preaching opportunities for me, and the loyal ones at my own church who are saying week after week, "We can do it!" THE GODS OF 1958 (Jdgs. 5:6-9). Have you ever said, in discussing some incident in history, "If I were God..."? Well, here are a few people who were gods, or at least they felt themselves so.

Look at these sad words: "Every man did that which was right in his own sight." (Jdgs. 17:6) Hopeless, helpless fools who thought they were self-sufficient and needed no counsel!

They turned themselves to Baal, their industrial deity who they thought made their grass to grow, their cattle to fatten. So they they worshiped their healthy fields of grain. Their banks are full with thrift savings, their fairways are open to us. Their children are victims of sex orgies and conflicts which enslave them.

These are our 1958 gods, and often our taverns and theaters and dance halls are their shrines.

For the people in our lesson, their worship of these unreal deities was made easier because they were connected with their daily work. Untrained as the Hebrews were in the skills of farming, and as the Canaanites' gardens were cultivated, they carried their little baals about from row to row. So their daily work and worship were practiced together.

And thus we Americans idolize prosperity, and anything whereby we may get a dollar quickly becomes an instrument of our prosperity worship.

The Hebrews even worshipped the stars of the heavens. Doesn't this sound like today? Two years ago a Gallup Poll revealed that one out of every 15 people in our Christian America were devotees of astrology and banked their lives' destinies on the signs of the Zodiac.

Others seek a lucky hand or a spiritual vibration from some mistress of the dark room.

And lastly, they were gods to themselves. They sought no advice from their neighbors. They lived their own lives, trusted no one and died their own deaths. For everyone did that which was right in his own eyes.

Americans Are Unappreciative, British Guiana Student Feels

"The average American citizen does not show any real appreciation for the many modern facilities available to him, many of them at no cost," according to Dick Young, British Guiana student at Indiana University.

Young is one of seven foreign students at the university assisting in a health education campaign in Indianapolis. Object of the efforts, centered in the area bounded by 10th, Missouri or Northwestern, 21st and Capitol, is to acquaint residents with the facilities and services of the H. G. Morgan Health Center at 15th and Missouri.

According to Young, Mr. Average Indianapolis Citizen is not aware of the advantages and value of the Morgan center. Yet, he holds the view that it is the duty of the state or community to provide him with all he needs.

"This," the student stated, "is my frank opinion of the residents of Census Tract 20 (the above described area)."

"I HAVE VISITED the area and chatted with many of them as well as received information from several influential people who have assisted themselves with the residents for many years.

"Through the community there exists at Morgan Health Center the facilities for a free medical examination for any member of the community, young or old. For the checking of the heart beat, kidneys, eyes, chest X-ray, a free service is provided — even blood tests.

"A great majority of the residents cannot afford their own private physician, and many there are who need one. They are aware of the an estimated population of 4,000 in this area, only few use this free facilities being offered and yet from service monthly.

"Why? They have all made quite certain the service exists, and indeed would not leave a stone unturned if it didn't — a much admired fighting, progressive American spirit. However, they leave it there, turn their backs and allow a most useful community service to go unused. Perhaps they say, 'Let us have it even if we do not use it!'

"MY IMPRESSION of these people," Young went on, "is that in this busy, well developed and equipped country of theirs, they have lost their sense of true values. Unfortunately, no such organization exists to serve the section of British Guiana. There are facilities for free medical care but not with the high standards provided at Morgan center."

"It would be a service gladly received by all at home."

"I strongly commend the service to the residents of Census Tract 20 and do trust they will make use of a facility which many others in the world would be anxious and happy to use. But, alas, it just doesn't exist for them."

"Use your health center," Young urged. "It offers all people the chance for a complete free medical examination."

Voice Of The People AFL-CIO Asks Flanner House Handley Support In Unemployment Editorials

To the Editor:

The following is a copy of a letter sent to Governor Handley:

"As you are aware, some 65,000 citizens of Indiana have exhausted their unemployment benefits. Under the congressional proposal, workers unemployed through no fault of their own would receive an additional 10 weeks of benefits. 'Several governors have already indicated that they would call a special session' of their Legislatures to 'permit payment of these additional benefits.'"

"Recently you were quoted as saying these benefits could not be paid in Indiana because of the state Constitution section prohibiting state debt."

"We would suggest that with $38 million in the state treasury, there would be no need for a state debt in this respect. Also, if your administration had supported the payment of supplemental unemployment benefits, millions of dollars of purchasing power would have been available in Indiana — power, incidentally, created by the workers themselves through a 5-cent-per-hour contribution to an unemployment trust fund."

"We urge you to do every-

To the Editor:

I have been reading with interest the recent editorials carried by The Recorder. You are to be congratulated on the effective and timely consideration being given to current problems.

Special mention should be made of your editorials on expanding job opportunities for Negroes and juvenile crime among Negroes. Both strike at basic considerations, which none should overlook in the din of confused thinking that often accompanies efforts to make desirable change.

"Being connected with an agency that has long been working toward improvement in the areas discussed in the above editorials, I want to thank you for touching off what I hope will be a wave of serious thinking on problems which concern the whole community."

Benson Voted Star of Stars in Indiana-Ohio Game

Passing Sportinalities

Chestnut, Walker Win NBA Titles

CHICAGO — For the first time, one city won both Men's and Women's Singles titles in the National Bowling Association meet here last week as Lavelle Walker and Gladys Chestnut of Indianapolis both emerged victorious.

Miss Chestnut, sponsored by James McQueen, well-known sportsman, had scores of 187-189, 216 for 592. She fouled in the last frame on four strikes in a row, then came back and made the spare. If this had not happened, she would have made the highest women's score bowled in the NBA actual pins.

TINEY

Her 592 also placed her 5th in the Handicap division. So McQueen, who went all the way to bring fame and fortune back to Indianapolis in the bowling world, will have a large trophy to display on his desk at the Pick and Choose Restaurant.

WALKER, STAR BOWLER of the Parker House Sausage team, won his singles title with scores of 249-192-244 for 685 actual, which brought 2nd money in the Handicap division. Walker has a 184 average at the Fun Bowl, and is this writer's No. 1 bowler of the year in Naptown.

Bowlers came from Washington, D. C., Delaware, Maryland, Ohio, Florida, California, Illinois, New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Pennsylvania and Indiana, to make this the biggest tournament in its 18-year history.

While in Chicago, Miss Chestnut also bowled in the Defender Diamond Sweepstakes, finishing 3rd. Her scores were 164-167-154-225 for 710.

Before coming to the Windy City, Miss Chestnut took part in the Mixed Doubles Tournament at the downtown Central Alleys in Indianapolis. She teamed with John Buckner to win the actual pins with 1,148 and place 2nd in the handicap with 1,296.

So Gladys has bowled nicely since coming out of retirement to rejoin inter-city match competition.

Getting their money last week from the Star Tournament were Ruth Walker, $32 for singles and $9 for All-Events; Dorothy Gentry and Marie Patterson.

School 26 Wins City Track Title 5th Straight Year

The trophy for winning the city junior high track meet the 5th straight year now rests in the bulging athletic trophy case of School 26.

Bill Mason of the city schools athletic department presented the award Tuesday to Mrs. Nancy Johnson and Ellis J. Diggs, coaches of the victorious team.

"Goose" Tatum to Play at Victory Field June 13

Reece "Goose" Tatum will play for the Detroit Clowns against the Kansas City Monarchs in the summer's first Negro baseball tilt at Victory Field on Friday night, June 13, promoters of the contest said this week.

The elusive Goose, who earlier was reported and then denied to be the owner of the Detroit club, is at least the nominal owner of the Clowns and will appear and play with them, according to a spokesman for Ted Rasberry, financial backer of the team. Rasberry is the owner of the Monarchs.

Tatum, who is well known and has a large following here, was scheduled to arrive in town Thursday afternoon, June 12, and tour the city in a sound car, the promoters said.

THE SCHEDULING OF the Negro American League game coincided with the return of the Indianapolis Indians to an all-white status as Sam Hairston, only tan player of the Indians, was sent to San Antonio of the Texas League. The veteran catcher was leading the Indians in batting at the time of his release, but had been used only sparingly.

Thus a cycle was completed which began when Cleveland purchased the Indians in 1952 and brought in numerous Negro players. Prior to that time the home-owned club had never had a tan performer, and now it has returned to that status. The Indians at present have a working agreement with the Chicago White Sox.

Friday night's game was slated to begin at 8:15. Dizzy Dismukes is manager of the Monarchs and Ed Steele of the Clowns.

Simmons, Stanfield Douglass Medalists

Jake Simmons of Chicago and Elisabeth Stanfield of the city were medalists in the Douglass Golf Club's 10th Annual Memorial Tournament, held last weekend at Douglass Park.

Simmons' score was 69 and Miss Stanfield's 81. The meet attracted golfers from Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois, Michigan and Ohio.

Attucks Ace Scores 22-- And Only 1 Personal!

FT. WAYNE—The little fellow they bypassed for the first-chosen Indiana All-Star basketball team proved himself here Monday as he scored 22 points to lead another All-Star aggregation to near-victory over a much taller Ohio stellar quintet.

LeVern Benson from Attucks may be a target for sports writers' persecution in his own home town. But he was universally acclaimed Indiana's Star of Stars here Monday and he'll hold that honor till somebody comes along to take it from him.

Little LeVern rammed 11 field goals in 21 shots—10 of them his thrilling outside variety—down the throats of his grown-up critics. And The Recorder, which months ago tabbed him as Hoosierland's top star, hopes they choke.

Ohio's skyscraper team, paced by All-American 6-10 Jerry Lucas from Middletown, won the game in the last 11 seconds by a 101-95 count. But not before never-say-die Benson and his mates had staged a rally that almost upset the classy Buckeyes.

Indiana led 24-22 at the end of the first quarter. Ohio coach Paul Walker put in a second platoon and the Hoosier lead zoomed to 36-26. Then Walker returned the starting five and the Ohioans were on top 50-43 at halftime.

In the third quarter Ohio outscored Indiana 26-22. Benson kept Indiana within range by throwing in his long swishers.

THE HOOSIER CHANCE came in the final period. Gordon Mickey of Chillicothe and Mel Nowell of Columbus East, Negro boys who scored 21 and 20 points respectively for the evening, both had to be benched with 4-foul trouble.

Trailing 84-73, Indiana scored 9 straight points and then, with 3:26 to go, Benson looped in a long one to tie it at 84-all.

Karl Roesler, Ft. Wayne Central Catholic star, hooked one on a pass from Benson to give Indiana a brief lead but Lucas followed a shot to tie it up.

Benson Going to Kansas

FT. WAYNE—LeVern Benson will enroll next fall at Kansas University, one of the nation's top basketball powers.

In the dressing-room after his brilliant performance in the Indiana-Ohio contest, Attucks' 5-10 flier disclosed he will go to the school which has been famed up till now as the home of 7-foot Wilt "The Stilt" Chamberlain. (Wilt has announced he is quitting college to go into pro basketball.)

Benson said he will go soon to Lawrence, Kan., to talk with coach Dick Harp. Then he will vacation for about a month in California, following which he'll return to Indianapolis and a job at Eli Lilly & Co.

MEANWHILE LEVERN VOWED to practice basketball at every opportunity.

"I'll play every day," he said. "I'll go to church on Sunday, then play the rest of the day."

Benson said his award as Indiana Star of Stars was a big thrill, but not his biggest.

"My biggest thrill was playing with Oscar," he declared—referring, of course, to Oscar Robertson.

A B-average student, LeVern will study at Kansas to be a veterinarian. He is 13th of 165 students in his Attucks graduating class.

ONCE DURING THE firewagon ball game, Benson and Ohio's Tom Sizer came together hard and Benson went down. LeVern recovered quickly, shook hands with Sizer and then outjumped the Ohioan, who is 4 inches taller.

Gordon Mickey of Chillicothe, 6-8 tan player who was Ohio's Star of Stars, is headed for Indiana University.

Mel Nowell, another Ohio Negro performer who starred, will go to Ohio State with famed Jerry Lucas.

The Drifters Featuring "Drip Drop" At The Flamingo Club Fri. Thru Mon.

"DAMN THE NEWSPAPER!" . . . This shocking remark is supposed to have come from the mouth of a member of a three or four-man vice squad crew which allegedly followed a Negro entertainer and a store executive (white) to our home early Tuesday morning. Asking the mixed pair what they were doing on the Avenoo at 20 minutes to 1 in the morning, this officer was told by the musician that they were calling on the writer and, finding him not in, were awaiting his return.

When they told the officers that I was a newspaperman, one of them reportedly exclaimed, "Damn the newspaper," or words to that effect.

THE HOME-INVADING GEN-DARMES also allegedly asked the white man if he was an Irishman. And then proceeded to drive him away from his companion, ordering him to "get on down the street." . . . Thus, setting him up for the thugs who prey along the midway at this hour of the morn'g. As it so happened the ofay got home safe and sound, but due to no consideration of these brow-beatin' pistol-packin' minions of the law who are dead set against fraternization of the races, even among friends.

IT SO HAPPENED that the musician had just gotten off from work at an ofay tavern and with his white friend, whom we had met before, was paying us a social call. . . . Of course, the vice squad did not know this and seemed to care less, when told by them that they were visiting a friend.

If the officers called themselves trying to protect the ofay against robbery or violence, well and good, but when they were told that all parties knew each other, they continued to use down-home tactics. This in itself meant only one thing: they did not want any fraternization of the races, even on the male level.

NOW WE DON'T KNOW and can't say that this is a policy of the administration. . . . But somebody downtown must know by now what's going on over in our districts. . . . Even while these two persons were being molested, white men are riding in the vicinity (Avenoo between Vermont and West) looking for colored girls.

They never seem to be able to apprehend these persons. . . . But when they see a MIXED couple they seem to blow their wigs. . . . Never stopping to think that these people might work together daily and are friends.

THEY ARE MOVING in on all sides in a determination to break up white and Negro friendships that have been built up over the years. Negroes can't take their white friends to any of the white spots, so it naturally follows that they must bring them to Negro entertainment spots, which are as always, located in Negro ghettos. So it seems that the police are movin' in with all types of harassment in order to break up this association.

IT IS HIGH TIME that the Negroes wake up and get help to themselves. . . . Until they do they'll never be safe in their homes when entertaining their white friends with whom they work and play every day in the year.

They are determined to break up our best entertainment spots by all kinds of ruses, even going so far as to stand on the outside of places and tell white patrons not to go in.

WE ARE TERRIBLY SORRY that a member of the vice squad who invaded our hallway last Monday night on the Avenoo, made that statement: "Damn the newspaper." Because whether he knows it or not, the SAME THING GOES DOUBLE FOR HIM. . . . And we do mean HIM! (Whatchabett?)

BASEBALL AT ITS MERRY BEST . . . The great Goose Tatum, basketball and baseball star, will be the featured attraction with his Detroit Stars vs. Kansas City Monarchs at Victory Field Friday

The management of the popular, ritzy Flamingo Club will present The "Drip Drop" Drifters, America's sensational vocal troupe, Friday through Monday with an early show at 9 p. m. Sunday. The song-song aggregation follows on the heels of Roy Hamilton, who was a sensational hit at the play-spot last week.

The Drifters will feature their own recordings of "Your Promise to be Mine," "Ruby Baby," "Steamboat," "Adorable," "Fools Fall in Love," "It Was a Tear," "Drifting Away From You," "Hypnotize," "I Got to Get Myself a Woman" and "Soldier of Fortune." All of these records are available at your nearest record shop. Other numbers include "Yodex Yakee" and "I Know."

HELD OVER by request are Samson and Delilah; Alecia, exotic dancer, Electree, shake dancer, and a pretty chorus line with Baron Harris in the emcee role. Jimmy Cole and his combo provide the swing tunes for dancing and listening pleasure. Remember, the club is open at 8:30 nightly and features a change in top stars every week, with Thursday nites still going good as Chick Nite, when all ladies are admitted FREE till 10 p. m.

PRESTIGE SIGNS JAZZ HARPIS T NEW YORK (ANP)—Jazz Harpist Dorothy Ashby recently signed a recording contract with Prestige Records. The contract calls for the release of two albums in the following year.

A native of Detroit, Miss Ashby has been working with her own trio throughout the U. S. and Canada for the past three years. Her first Prestige album "Hip Harp" is scheduled for release in June. Appearing on the album with Miss Ashby are Frank West, flute; Herman Wright, bass, and Art Taylor, drums.

"Hip Harp" will contain three original compositions by Miss Ashby and the popular standards "Moonlight in Vermont," "Dancing in the Dark," "Charmaine" and "There's a Small Hotel."

THE DRIFTERS will be the top attraction at the Flamingo Club Friday thru Monday, June 13, 14, 15, 16. The group will feature their latest recording of "Drip Drop" and many other popular hits.

Tiny Grimes, Coleman Hawkins Cut New LP

NEW YORK (ANP)—Tiny Grimes, "King of the Four String Guitar," recently cut his first album for Prestige records. Titled "Blues Groove," the album co-stars Coleman Hawkins and is scheduled for release in June.

High point of the LP is "March in A-flat," a 19-minute take-off on a traditional blues theme. The track opens Grimes and Hawkins a challenging opportunity to express themselves, without concern for time.

Tiny first gained popularity in the early 40's as a member of The Cats and a Fiddler. Later he worked with Art Tatum, and for the past seven years has been touring the country with his own group.

Riverside Re-Signs Thelonious Monk

NEW YORK (ANP)—Riverside Records announced last week the signing of Thelonious Monk to a new exclusive recording contract. Noting that they are particularly pleased to be continuing recording activities with Monk, Bill Grauer Jr. and Orrin Keepnews, heads of the label, pointed up the important role of the artist in the rapid growth of the Riverside jazz line.

Teen Talk

By THE SNOOPER

Well, lads and lassies, how's kinks? Here I am back again for another week to uncover some of the fabulous sneaks that were pulled by you, my most faithful readers... Let's get started with the gossip...

Dig this, kids, Lora Wilson has finally hooked her man and now she is going steady with none other than Orlando Matthews. Work on, girl, everybody's not able... I hear that Brenda "Shortie" Gibson and Samuel Foster will go on loving each other even after their break-up... Sharon Walker, why don't you wise up and give Arthur Carter a chance? ... Laura Edton, what's going on with you and Jesse Johnson? The two of you are not showing much love for each other these days.

James Johnson, you know you love Rita Davis, so why don't you stop playing hard to get with her? Carol Shively and Willie Eaton are really making a tuff couple... Thad Charleston, why not give Gladys Whitely a chance and end her long lonely nights? ... Priscilla Harris, are you still wearing William Ford's ring around your neck? ... Is it true that Robert McCann goes for Joyce Blakemore?

Steven Cole, that cute chick you call "Cat-Eyes" kills for you. So why don't you give her a chance? ... I hear that Eddie Atkins and Beverly Walston are cooling their heels on Cloud No. 9. Keep it up, kids.

SAY, RONALD LIGHTFOOT, is it true that there is no one else in your life but Marlene Baird? ... Joyce Squires, when are you going to tell us who you will be spending all your time with this summer? ... Melvin Bradford, who is this cute little girl by the name of Patty who is going wild over you? ... Joyce Barker, I hear that you are ready to tell the world that your heart belongs only to Peter Goodall. How 'bout that Robert Carolyn Brewer, when are you and Michael Ellis going to stop being bashful and go ahead and talk to each other?

Norma Cheatham, will you please reveal who your secret love is? ... Rosemary Hornbeat, are you and Bobby Dixon still being real cool lovebirds? ... James Johnson, who is the real tuff chick from the Southside, that you seem to be spending so much time with lately? ... Watch out, Georgia Evans! Ellen Oaks is trying to win back Emmanuel Foster's heart. What are you going to do about this? ... Look around, Donald James, there's a certain girl at Shortridge who says her heart is all yours... I hear Brenda Gibson is keeping her eye on a certain boy at S.H.S. Wonder if that certain boy could be Bill Crayton? Good luck, Brenda!

I HEAR ARTHUR CARTER'S keeping watch over Sharon Walker. It is strictly propaganda... Carl White, why don't you wake up, don't you know Mary Wright is singing "Talk to Me"? ... Nelson Ware, you had better get smart and go see Bennie more often, before you are singing "I've Lost You"... I hear that Isaac Bernard is too advanced for high school girls. He has recently been dating a "real fox" from Indiana University. Paula Ellis, the Snooper has found out who your secret love is, Richard Smith, right? ... Is it true that another boy is drawing Diane Gaspi's attention from Stanly Butler? ... Raymond Gaspi and Diana Johnson are steady trying to be the coolest couple at School No. 43... Hey there, Butch Conn, why don't you admit that you are still in love with Frances Craig?

Susan Chavis and DeWitt King are telling everybody that "No Matter What" they will always be together... Rita Grant, you and Robert Beasley are making a real gone twosome. Keep the good time rolling, kids... A little bird told me that Manona Caudill kills for Pinky Horner... Say dig, Joanne Williams, what's this I hear about you going around breaking all these young boys' hearts? ... Bruce Armstrong, is it true that you are telling the boys that Joanne Williams is one of the cutest girls on the Northside and you go for her in a big way? I hear you go crazy about you, too, so have no fear.

WILLIE JENNINGS, is it true that you are trying to win the heart and love of cute Joanne Williams? ... I hear that Ruby Trotter and Curtis Graham have gone back together. I wonder if it is for good this time? ... Sharon "Miss Fine" Blair and Larry "Mr. Cool Cat" Hall are really climbing to the top of the stepladder of love... I hear that Bobby Powell has eyes for a certain chick named Margaret Dulin. What will Alice Baker say about this, Bobby? ... The torch of love is still burning between James McGee and Marcia Law.

I hear that a new love has started between Jerry Franklin and Patricia Lee. Let's make it one of those everlasting kind, kids. OK! ... Ruth Armstrong and William Watts are riding high in the atmosphere of love... Say, John Means, is it true that you have given Carolyn Burns a chance to win your love? ... Hey, boys, you had better keep away from Delores Means now that Houston Dickey is back on the scene... Corine Stepp and Charles Bellamy are staying real cool although the temperature is steadily rising these days.

ETHEL ROAN, what stud are you trying to capture now with all of your charming personality? ... Eddie Black, when are you coming down from your Ivory Tower and give Brenda Dale a chance, when you know all along you kill for her? ... Sadie Ratliff, is your search for a true love still in vain? ... Cecelia Finch, I was told that you are looking for someone to fill the empty space in your heart. How true is this, Cecelia? ... Brenda Slater and William Jennings are one of the smoothest of the smooth couples.

Hey say, Constance "Connie" Johnson, it seems as though you and Arnold Townsend are crazy about each other but are just too bashful to tell each other... Barbara Wright, who's your steady now, or have you lost your magic Monday through Friday. Summer office hours for the center are 9 to 4:30 on weekdays and 9 to noon Saturday, while teenage evening hours are 6 to 9 Monday through Thursday and 8 to 10:30 Fridays. Among special events listed for the summer are a family picnic at Lincoln City on June 25, teenagers "Patriotic Dance" on July 2, outdoor carnival July 11-12 and "Family Night," including a band concert and crafts exhibit, July 29.

ZETA ZETA OMEGA chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority held its luncheon meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Alberta Stevenson, retiring basileus, and named as new officers for the coming year Miss Lillian Syler, basileus; Miss Thelma Lovelace, anti-basileus; Mrs. Agnes Mann, grammateus; Mrs. Jacqueline Neal, epistoleus; Mrs. Marjorie Jackson, financial secretary, and Mrs. Ada Chester, treasurer.

Members of AKA undergraduate chapters were guests. They included the Misses Aurelia Morrisweath, of Lincoln University; Margaret Ann Porter, Indiana University, and Gwendolyn Williams, Delphne Sydnor and Julia Palmer, Evansville College.

Beta Iota chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority recently initiated two Evansville girls and one from Kentucky, feting them at a congratulatory dinner at the Vendome Hotel. They were the Misses Helen touch? ... Floyd Wooten is playing "Valentino" to Barbara Smith... Information, please. Would someone please tell me what the haps are between Deborah Hannon and James Grayson? ... Darrell Johnson, Edward Mays and Roland Seymour are always trying to talk to the same girls. Isn't that right, Judy Terry?

HEY, ELLA ALVIS, who is the nice-looking stud you have been spending so much time with lately? ... Carol Artis, you'd better wake up before it's too late, because you are steadily losing Philip Radford to Cheryl Grundy... Dennis Moore is singing "On Bended Knees" to Maddie Bell. What is going to be your reply, Maddie? ... Johnny Billips, do you know that Thelma Davis is killing for you and wants you to give her a chance?

Eric Davis, won't you please give Mattie Williams a chance, because she steadily goes for you? ... Charles Whitney, are you and Carolyn Taylor still making a tuff twosome? ... Alese Washington, I hear that you still go for Paul Warren. Could this be true? ... Charlotte Bryant, are you still head-over-heels in love with Tommy Sampson? I hear he has eyes for someone else.

Say, all you cool ones. Like don't be forgetting the dance Friday night at the Senate Avenue "Y." I mean like it should be real crazy! And dig this! Proceeds go to help the local NAACP Youth Council send a delegation to the national convention in Cleveland next month. Dig you there? Crazy, baby! This is the end, so I must play like the great artist that I really am and draw these few lines to a close.

Tolliver, Julia Palmer and Rella Mae Worthman. Elected ICY officers were the Misses Mattie Miller, basileus; Julia Palmer, anti-basileus; Rella Worthman, grammateus; Helen Tolliver, epistoleus, and Juanita Holbrook, tamlochus.

Mrs. Carolene N. Bell, president of the Evansville chapter of the National Council of Negro Women, and Miss Willie Effie Thomas, organizer and former president, have returned from St. Louis, where they attended the NCNW regional meeting.

Among speakers were the national president, Miss Dorothy Height of New York, a national YWCA worker; Jesse Owens, internationally-known track star now of Chicago and member of the Illinois Youth commission, and many other outstanding personalities. The delegates reported on the convention at Monday night's meeting held at the home of Rev. Bell, 627 Chestnut.

Evansville council women will be hostesses to the 1959 regional conference.

AT THE BEGINNING of this week 17 persons had entered the lawn and garden beautification contest sponsored by the Lincoln Garden Erie Homes housing projects. Winners will be awarded prizes in the contest on flowers, yards and gardens, which is open to any Negro resident of Evansville. Persons interested may contact E. M. Baylor Jr., Dallas Sprinkle or L. A. Ferguson. The contest will close Sept. 15.

E. C. Pullum, manager of the Blair Gospel Singers, is working in the NAACP membership drive, and membership cards are available at the Blair Record Shop, 603 S. Elliott.

Joe Hinton of the Spirit of Memphis quartet appeared at Cleaves Memorial CME Church last Sunday afternoon and that night appeared with the Blair Gospel Singers. He was guest of Rev. B. J. Booser at Little Valley Baptist Church on Wednesday night.

Rev. Charles Douglas and his singing groups presented a program last Sunday afternoon at Independence Baptist Church for the annual Children's Day program sponsored by the Sunday school. The annual Vacation Bible School began Monday morning at 9 and continued through Friday Mrs. Thelma Rucker was in charge of music, and the committee directing the school also included Mesdames Audie Meadows, Doris Dulin and Vera Alston and Frank Haynes.

YOUTH DAY was observed at Nazarene Baptist Church with a special program Sunday afternoon. Theme of the day was "Youth and Christianity." Special guests were the Golden Spirits of St. James. The program was under the direction of Miss Jacqueline Jackson. Rev. M. D. Banks is pastor.

Services in honor of the eighth anniversary of Dr. A. Bell as pastor of Greater Norris Chapel Baptist Church, Henderson, Ky., began Tuesday night and were set for 7:45 each night this week, with ministers of churches in near-by towns as preachers.

Mrs. Beulah M. Groves was chairman, with Mrs. Lucille Payne as co-chairman.

Eddie Richardson, Harold King and David Roberts of Lincoln high school have entered the Soap Box Derby, to be run this year on June 22.

Each boy in the race must have a sponsor, and at this writing two of the three still needed sponsors. The Stevenson Realty Company will sponsor one boy, the name of the company being printed on his racer. Anyone interested should call Luther Roberts or Carl Underwood of the Evansville Junior Chamber

Kokomo NAACP Launches Drive For More Members

KOKOMO — Members of the Kokomo NAACP have shown great energy in the opening leg of the branch's 1958 membership. The drive was launched with a program at Wayman AME Church. Speaker was Mrs. Ollie Weeks of Indianapolis, Central Area director.

In promoting the drive, Mrs. Emily Toler was speaker at Local 292, UAW-CIO, and Mrs. Helen Pearce spoke for Local 1057, CIO.

A musical program at Second Baptist Church featured the Hall Singers, the Zion Singers, the Hizer Trio and solos by Mesdames Dorothy Fisher and Louis Curry. Miss Betty Lou Hizer and Ed Ray. Remarks were made by Rev. J. W. Carr, pastor of Second Baptist Church; Rev. Henderson Davis, pastor of Wayman Church, and Hollis King, branch president.

Mrs. Toler and Rev. Davis broadcast over Station WIOU, and spot announcements were made throughout the week. The drive will end Saturday.

Mrs. Louise King is membership campaign chairman, and Mrs. Fisher is co-chairman.
